(b) The county shall establish a payment schedule subject to approval by the board for payment of the cost of such service over and above that which would be funded within the existing employer contribution rate. The maximum period allowed in a payment schedule shall be thirty (30) years, with interest at the rate actuarially assumed by the board. A shorter period is desirable and the board may approve any payment schedule provided it is not longer than a thirty (30) year period, except that cities which participate in the system pursuant to subsection (7) of this section, KRS 79.080, 90.400, 90.410, 95.520, 95.621, 95.761, 95.768, 95.852, or 96.180 may, at their option, extend the payment schedule to a maximum of thirty (30) years, may choose to make level payments at the interest rate actuarially assumed by the board over the life of the payment schedule chosen, and may retain employer contributions and the earnings thereon attributable to employees electing coverage;

(c) A city entering the system under the alternate participation plan, may, by ordinance, levy a special property tax to pay for current service credit purchased for the period between July 1, 1958, and the participation date of the city. The special tax shall be to pay, within a period of no more than fifteen (15) years, for the cost of such service credit over that which would be funded within the existing employer contribution rate, as determined by the board's consulting actuary. The reason for levying the special tax and the disposition of the proceeds shall be part of the ordinance levying the tax. The special tax shall be rescinded when the unfunded prior service liability has been amortized, and shall not be subject to the provisions of KRS 132.017 or 132.027. In addition, the city may maintain any tax, the proceeds of which had been devoted to funding pension obligations under the locally administered plan prior to participation in the system, for the purpose of funding current service costs incurred after the date of participation. The city may increase the tax to pay current service costs which exceed the local pension system costs to which the tax had been devoted, but the city shall not collect from the tax more revenues than are necessary to pay current service costs incurred after the date of participation. The city may continue the tax so long as it participates in the system, and the tax shall not be subject to the provisions of KRS 132.017 or 132.027. The city shall not collect either tax authorized by this paragraph [~~the special property tax~~] if its participation has been terminated pursuant to KRS 78.535; and

(d) The county may at a later date purchase current service credit from July 1, 1958, to the participation date of the county by alternate participation plan for those employees who rejected membership in the system at the time the county first participated. In addition, the employer shall pay the employer contributions on the creditable compensation of the employees who later elect membership from the participation date of the county to the date the member elects participation. The employee shall pay the employee contributions on his creditable compensation from the participation date of the county to the date he elects membership plus interest at the current actuarial rate compounded annually on the employee and employer contributions. Cost of the service credit over and above that which would be funded within the existing employer contribution rate shall be determined by the board's consulting actuary. The expense of the actuarial service shall be paid by the county. The county shall pay the cost of the service by lump sum or by adding it to the existing payment schedule established under paragraph (b) of this subsection.

(4) Every school board not participating on June 21, 1974, shall enact a resolution of participation no later than July 1, 1976.

(5) The order of the governing body of a county, as provided for in subsection (1) of this section, may exclude from participation in the system hospitals and any other semi-independent agency. Each such excluded agency shall be identified in the order authorizing participation and such excluded agency may participate in the system as a separate agency.

(6) An agency whose participation in the county employees retirement system has been terminated by the board of trustees in accordance with KRS 78.535 may at a later date request participation in the retirement system by the adoption of an appropriate order as authorized by subsection (1) of this section. The board may accept the participation of such agency provided it is determined that such participation is in the best interest of the agency, the employees thereof and the county employees retirement system.

(7) After August 1, 1988, except as permitted by KRS 65.156, no local government retirement system shall be created pursuant to KRS 70.580 to 70.598 and any local government retirement systems created pursuant to KRS 79.080, 90.400, 90.410, 95.768 and KRS Chapter 96 shall be closed to new members. New employees who would have been granted membership in such retirement systems shall instead be granted membership in the county employees retirement system. Employees who would have been granted membership in retirement systems created pursuant to KRS 95.768, or any other policemen or firefighters who would have been granted membership in retirement systems created pursuant to KRS 79.080, 90.400 or 90.410, or any such policemen or firefighter members employed on or prior to August 1, 1988 who transfer to the county employees retirement system, shall be certified by their employers as working in hazardous positions. Each city participating in the county employees retirement system pursuant to this subsection shall execute the appropriate order authorizing such participation, shall select the alternate participation plan as described in subsection (3) of this section, and shall pay for the actuarial services necessary to determine the additional costs of alternate participation. Cities which closed their local pension systems to new members and participated in the system prior to July 15, 1988, whose employees at the time of transition were given the option to join the system shall not be required to offer said employees a second option to join the system.

(8) Any city which closed a police and firefighter pension plan to new members between January 1, 1988, and July 15, 1988, and participated in the system under the alternate participation plan shall, if its police and firefighters were not covered by Social Security, or any city which operates a pension under KRS 90.400 or 90.410, shall be required to certify that its police and firefighters are working in hazardous positions, and shall offer its police and firefighters in service at the time of entry a second option to participate under hazardous duty coverage if they were not offered hazardous duty coverage at the time of their first option. The provisions of subsection (3)(b) of this section notwithstanding, a city affected by this subsection may, at its option, extend its payment schedule to the county employees retirement system for alternate participation to thirty (30) years at the rate actuarially assumed by the board.

The House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Kentucky hereby honors the Honorable Buel Elgar Guy upon the forty-first anniversary of his human birth.

Further, this august body does commend the former Gentleman from Allen for his calm demeanor, sober judgment and vigilant stewardship in matters germane to the lifeblood of legislative continuity.

Also, this honorable body recognizes the talents that Buel Elgar Guy brings to service in this hallowed chamber. His history as a civil defense specialist has stemmed the tide of brushfires inherent to staff activities. His background in the Industrial Education Association has assured this body that constant service is applied to the chamber's roll call machine. And his background as a farmer assures him that he can cope with all fertilizing aspects of government employment.

Representative Donnermeyer moved the adoption of the following Legislative Citation No. 57. Agreed.

The House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Kentucky hereby honors, recognizes, and commends the International Roll Call Machine of the House of Representatives for its ability to halt all legislative action. Said roll call machine has defied all attempts to bring this honorable body into step with the rest of the twentieth century.

The International Roll Call machine of the House of Representatives has accomplished what contentions of germaneness, allegations of chicanery, suspension of the rules and points of personal privilege have failed to do. To wit: said mechanical device has halted the chorus of democratic debate.

Further, the House of Representatives recommends that the International Roll Call machine of the House of Representatives be placed into that historical category containing other monuments of technological acumen such as the Edsel automobile, the Spiro Agnew watch and Elvis Presley impersonators.

Finally, the House of Representatives doth renames the International Roll Call machine the Donald J. Blandford Memorial Roll Call Device.

The year of adjustment will be the particular full calendar year involved.

(3) It is the intention of the legislature that the constitutionally permissible adjustment of salaries of these officials be framed around equating current salaries with the purchasing power of the dollar in 1949 when section 246 of the Constitution of Kentucky was amended. Section 246 of the Constitution of Kentucky, as amended, established a monetary level of twelve thousand dollars ($12,000) per annum for said officials. The formula merely effects an adjustment of the constitutional monetary level in terms of the current consumer price index.

(4) In order to adjust the compensation of the Governor to reflect changes in the purchasing power of the dollar, the Department for Local Government shall compute by the second Friday in February of every year, beginning in 1985, an adjusted salary of the Governor by multiplying sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) by the increase in the consumer price index during the period from January 1, 1984 to the beginning of the then-current calendar year. The actual compensation paid to the Governor for the entire calendar year of 1985 and subsequent years shall be the adjusted salary.

(5) In order to adjust the compensation of the Lieutenant Governor to reflect changes in the purchasing power of the dollar, the Department for Local Government shall compute by the second Friday in February of every year, beginning in 1993, an adjusted salary of the Lieutenant Governor by multiplying fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) by the increase in the consumer price index during the period from January 1, 1992 to the beginning of the then-current calendar year. The actual compensation paid to the Lieutenant Governor for the entire calendar year of 1993 and subsequent years shall be the adjusted salary.

HCR 50, A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION urging Kentucky citizens to "stand up and be counted" in the 1990 United States Census.

WHEREAS, April 1, 1990, marks the date of the beginning of the 1990 United States census population count, an enumeration of our population conducted every ten years; and

WHEREAS, the census count is so important to our representative and democratic form of government that the framers of our Constitution included the decennial population count as a requirement of our United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, census data is used to determine the boundaries of our legislative and congressional districts and to determine how many seats Kentucky will have in the U.S. House of Representatives; and

WHEREAS, the Commonwealth of Kentucky is "on the bubble", in serious danger of losing one of its seven United States congressional seats if the population count falls short; and

WHEREAS, population figures are extremely important as they are used by federal and state government to determine the distribution of billions of dollars to states and local communities through a variety of programs; and

WHEREAS, some Kentuckians may be reluctant to be counted for fear the information given would not, in fact, be held strictly confidential; and

WHEREAS, census information is strictly confidential and unavailable to anyone, including immigration authorities, the Internal Revenue Service, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the courts, the military, welfare agencies, and the like; and

WHEREAS, each uncounted citizen represents a threat to Kentucky's representation in Congress and a significant loss of revenue;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. That all citizens of the Commonwealth are urged to "stand up and be counted" in the 1990 U.S. Census in an effort to save our seven seats in the United States House of Representatives and to insure that Kentucky gets her fair share of federal funds.

Section 2. That the members of the Kentucky General Assembly undertake a serious campaign to educate their constituents as to the importance of their enthusiastic participation in the 1990 Census.

Section 3. That the Executive Branch of Government and officials of local governments embark on a similar effort to promote active participation in the 1990 Census.

HJR 174, A JOINT RESOLUTION authorizing and directing the Kentucky Department of Personnel to conduct a study of state employee salaries and benefits to see how they compare with the seven surrounding states and making an appropriation therefor.

WHEREAS, it is becoming increasingly more difficult for the Commonwealth of Kentucky to recruit and retain attorneys because these people can make more money in the teaching profession; and

WHEREAS, it is becoming increasingly more difficult for the Commonwealth of Kentucky to recruit and retain social workers because social workers with masters degrees employed by the state are making less money than beginning teachers; and

WHEREAS, it is becoming increasingly more difficult for the Commonwealth of Kentucky to recruit and retain registered nurses because nursing positions in the private sector pay more money; and

WHEREAS, it is becoming increasingly more difficult for the Commonwealth of Kentucky to recruit and retain computer personnel because private-sector salaries are higher; and

WHEREAS, it is becoming increasingly more difficult for the Commonwealth of Kentucky to recruit and retain engineers because salaries in the private sector are higher; and

WHEREAS, it is becoming increasingly more difficult for the Commonwealth of Kentucky to recruit and retain members of the state police because the police departments in the Commonwealths' two largest cities pay higher salaries; and

WHEREAS, rank-and-file employees of the Commonwealth of Kentucky are moonlighting to make ends meet; and

WHEREAS, female employees of the Commonwealth of Kentucky are still paid less than men in comparable jobs; and

WHEREAS, employees of the Commonwealth of Kentucky are finding it increasingly difficult to afford family health and dental insurance coverage; and

WHEREAS, correctional officers of the Commonwealth of Kentucky are eligible for and receive food stamps; and

WHEREAS, state employee salary increases have not kept up with inflation; and

WHEREAS, state employee health benefits are being reduced annually and costing more;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. That the Department of Personnel shall study, or cause to be studied, salaries and benefits of Executive Department employees and compare them with the salaries paid and benefits granted similar employees in the seven states surrounding Kentucky.

Section 2. There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund the sum of $25,000 to accomplish this study. Any amount remaining following the completion of this study shall revert to the General Fund. The study shall begin no later than August 1, 1990, and the report and recommendations shall be submitted to the Legislative Research Commission's Interim Joint Committees on State Government and Appropriations and Revenue no later than July 31, 1991.

The Committee on Education reported HB 529 with Committee Amendment attached thereto, and HCR 158 with the expression of opinion that the same should pass. Read at length for the first time and ordered placed in the Calendar.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 158 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Public school teachers of grades nine (9) through twelve (12) shall be allowed fifty-five (55) consecutive minutes of duty-free planning time each school day. The fifty-five (55) minutes of duty-free planning time shall not be a part of the regularly scheduled lunch period, as described in KRS 158.060; the time teachers are required to be at school prior to the start of the student's six (6) hour instructional day; or the time teachers are required to remain at or return to school after the students are dismissed.

SECTION 2. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 158 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Public school teachers of grades kindergarten through eight (8) shall be allowed forty-five (45) consecutive minutes of duty-free planning time each school day. HCR 158, A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION directing the Interim Joint Committee on Education to conduct a study of issues relating to school choice.

WHEREAS, demographic and labor market projections estimate that every American who is well-educated will have a good job by the year 2000 but those who have dropped out or have graduated from high school without obtaining adequate literacy and computational skills will be virtually unemployable; and

WHEREAS, our current national and state educational system is not producing the results that will be necessary to meet these future needs because recent surveys show that four (4) out of five (5) young adults have severe difficulty in summarizing the main points of newspaper articles, reading bus schedules, or figuring change from restaurant bills, all of which are skills indicative of a general ability to understand and communicate; and

WHEREAS, approximately thirty-five (35%) of young adults in this state drop out of school because their academic or social needs are not met in the school setting; and

WHEREAS, many school systems in Kentucky have utilized the magnet school concept, which allows some limited choice, and has been successful in raising standards and the performance of students in these school systems; and

WHEREAS, allowing a measure of choice gives parents the ability to choose the mix of services supplied by schools that best suits their preferences and this fact stimulates the schools to address more adequately the real needs of students and hence be both more responsive and more accountable; and

WHEREAS, various states and localities are allowing parents choice with regard to choosing the schools their children will attend; and

WHEREAS, the Education Commission of the States, the U.S. Secretary of Education, and the National Governors' Association view school choice as essential in bringing our educational system into the twenty-first century;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The Interim Joint Committee on Education is directed to conduct a thorough and continuing study of the issues relating to school choice, including all aspects relating to adoption, implementation and funding of such a plan. The committee is authorized to seek the advice and counsel of those Kentucky school districts that have forms of a choice plan and those state and national figures knowledgeable in this area. The committee is encouraged to seek out those persons, groups, and organizations the committee feels will be able to assist in the discharge of its responsibilities.

Section 2. The committee shall make a report of its findings and recommendations, with suggestions for proposed legislation, if any, to the Legislative Research Commission on or before October 31, 1991.

Section 3. Staff services to be utilized in completing this study are estimated to cost twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000). These staff services shall be provided from the regular Commission budget and are subject to the limitation and other research responsibilities of the Commission.

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 365 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The General Assembly hereby finds and declares as follows:

(a) Cigarettes, because of their standardized character, their great popularity, their widespread and varied types of markets and methods of distribution and the sensitivity of their distribution to price fluctuations, possess a distinct marketing character and, the economic facts and circumstances peculiar to their distribution, require special and individualized treatment of the problems created by the sale of cigarettes below cost.

(c) The sale of cigarettes below cost for the purpose of destroying or substantially lessening competition is an unfair business practice, which tends to be disorganizing in the sale and distribution of cigarettes, and ultimately fosters monopoly and high prices by tending to force independent wholesalers and retailers out of business.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 151.110 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The conservation, development and proper use of the water resources of the Commonwealth of Kentucky have become of vital importance as a result of population expansion and concentration, industrial growth, technological advances and an ever increasing demand for water for varied industrial, municipal and recreational uses. It is recognized by the general assembly that excessive rainfall during certain seasons of the year causes damage from overflowing streams. However, prolonged droughts at other seasons curtail industrial, municipal, agricultural and recreational uses of water and seriously threaten the continued growth and economic well-being of the Commonwealth. The advancement of the safety, happiness and welfare of the people and the protection of property require that the power inherent in the people be utilized to promote and to regulate the conservation, development and most beneficial use of the water resources. It is hereby declared that the general welfare requires that the water resources of the Commonwealth be put to the beneficial use to the fullest extent of which they are capable, that the waste or nonbeneficial use of water be prevented, and that the conservation and beneficial use of water be exercised in the interest of the people. Therefore, it is declared the policy of the Commonwealth to actively encourage and to provide financial, technical or other support for projects that will control and store our water resources in order that the continued growth and development of the Commonwealth might be assured. To that end, it is declared to be the purpose of KRS Chapters 146, 149, 151, 224, 262 and KRS 350.029 and 433.750 to 433.757 for the Commonwealth to permit, regulate, and participate in the construction or financing of facilities to store surplus surface water for future use; to conserve and develop the ground water resources of the Commonwealth; to protect the rights of all persons equitably and reasonably interested in the use and availability of water; to prohibit the pollution of water resources and to maintain the normal flow of all streams so that the proper quantity and quality of water will be available at all times to the people of the Commonwealth; to provide for the adequate disposition of water among the people of the Commonwealth entitled to its use during severe droughts or times of emergency; to prevent harmful overflows and flooding; to regulate the construction, maintenance and operation of all dams and other barriers of streams; to prevent the obstruction of streams and floodways by the dumping of substances therein; to keep accurate records on the amount of water withdrawal from streams and watercourses and reasonably regulate the amount of withdrawal of public water; and to engage in other activities as may be necessary to conserve and develop the water resources of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

(2) It is a finding of the General Assembly that groundwater is an important but vulnerable natural resource of this state, that the majority of rural Kentuckians rely exclusively on groundwater for drinking and that groundwater is inextricably linked to surface waters which may also serve as a drinking water resource. It is also a finding that groundwater is a resource equally vital for agricultural, commercial and industrial purposes and that useable groundwater is critical to the future development of these industries. Therefore, it shall be the policy of this state to manage groundwater for the health, welfare, and economic prosperity of all citizens.

SECTION 2. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 247 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The College of Agriculture of the University of Kentucky, through the agricultural experiment station and the cooperative extension service shall assess the effect of agricultural practices upon groundwater resources, establish basic and applied research programs to determine agricultural management practices which may be necessary to protect groundwater resources and establish and implement an educational program to encourage the use of agricultural practices which conserve, maintain and improve soil productivity and to assure protection of groundwater. The college shall seek the cooperation of the Division of Conservation within the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet, the Kentucky Farm Bureau and other organizations in implementing the educational program.

Section 3. KRS 217B.210 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The department may publish information and conduct short courses of instruction in the safe use and application of pesticides.

(2) The department shall, at least once each year, review and update, to incorporate current information, the license examinations given by the department and all training courses approved by the department.

SECTION 4. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 224 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The cabinet shall implement a program to provide technical assistance to counties, cities and urban-county governments that seek to develop programs to accept and dispose of non-industrial surplus agricultural chemicals and containers. The technical assistance shall include, but not be limited to, availability of on-site analysis of chemicals and containers, availability of regulated transporters and recycling or disposal facilities and methods of increasing public participation.

SECTION 5. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 151 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

When the cabinet develops administrative regulations for the protection of groundwater, the Agricultural Experiment Station and the Cooperative Extension Service of the University of Kentucky, the Division of Conservation within the cabinet and representatives of production agriculture shall be given the opportunity to actively participate in the development of the administrative regulations.

SECTION 6. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 217B IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) No person engaged in farming who has applied or used or arranged for the application or use of any fertilizer, plant growth regulator, or pesticide as defined in the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act, as amended, shall be responsible or liable without proof of negligence or lack of due care, for any damages or response costs relating to any direct or indirect discharge or release into, or actual or threatened pollution of, the land, waters, air, or other resources of the state that is or may be associated with or resulting from the application or use, provided that:

(a) The application or use was in a manner consistent with the labeling of the fertilizer, plant growth regulator, or pesticide and in accordance with acceptable agricultural management practices and all applicable state and federal laws and regulations at the time of the application or use;

(b) The state or federal government, or any of its agencies, had approved, recommended, or permitted the application or use and there is no finding that any conditions of the approval, recommendation, or permit were violated, or that warnings or limitations regarding the application or use were ignored; and

(c) The fertilizer, plant growth regulator, or pesticide was licensed by or registered with the state or federal government at the time of the application or use and the person, firm, or corporation knew of no special geological, hydrological, or soil type condition existing on the land which rendered the application or use likely to cause pollution. No person, firm, or corporation shall be liable based solely on ownership of the land where the application or use took place.

(2) For the purposes of this section, farming means the cultivation of land used for the production of agricultural crops, livestock or livestock products, forestry or forestry products, milk or dairy products, poultry or poultry products, aquaculture or aquacultural products, and horticulture or horticultural products.

(3) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit any cause of action based on strict tort liability against any manufacturer of the fertilizer, plant growth regulator, or pesticide.

(4) Any and all ordinances of any unit of local government now in effect or hereafter adopted that are in conflict with this Act shall be void.

(f) Any other resource recovery operation within the county or district not included in paragraphs (a) through (e) of this subsection or the supply of materials to such operation unless it is established that such operation would jeopardize the ability of a local government or other political subdivision of the state to meet financial obligations incurred in the maintenance, operation, or amortization of capital acquisition costs for a solid waste management facility.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Kentucky Revised Statutes to the contrary, no county or waste management district shall regulate special wastes as defined in KRS 224.868, other than sludge from water and waste water treatment facilities, or solid waste from agricultural or mining operations.

A county may contract with any city to provide solid waste management services or may delegate the responsibility for solid waste management within incorporated areas to a city when the city agrees to assume such responsibility. In connection with solid waste management, any county may enter into contracts with any person for any term of years.

(8) Counties are authorized to charge a reasonable fee to haulers for the handling of their waste at a solid waste management facility approved by the department.

(9) Counties are authorized to sell or market materials and energy recovered from solid waste and to enter into long-term contracts guaranteeing supply to insure markets for the sale of recovered products.

(10) In carrying out the provisions of this chapter, counties shall be subject to standards set by regulations promulgated by the department on waste management pursuant to KRS Chapter 224.

(11) No county or waste management district shall prohibit long-term contracts by ordinance or other means.

(12) Counties are expressly authorized in addition to the powers enumerated in KRS Chapter 65 and this chapter to contract with one another in order to regionalize solid waste management to the maximum extent practicable.

(13) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a fiscal court may, by ordinance, create a solid waste district to exercise the powers of the county pursuant to this chapter, except that a district created for this purpose shall not levy or collect ad valorem property taxes.

Section 2. KRS 100.201 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of KRS 100.137, when the planning commission and legislative bodies have adopted the statement of goals and objectives, and the planning commission has additionally

In addition, land use and zoning regulations may be employed to provide for vehicle parking and loading space, as well as to facilitate fire and police protection, and to prevent the overcrowding of land, blight, danger, and congestion in the circulation of people and commodities, and the loss of life, health, or property from fire, flood or other dangers. Land use and zoning regulations may also be employed to protect airports, highways, and other transportation facilities, public facilities, schools, public grounds, historical districts, central business districts, prime agricultural land and other natural resources, to regulate the use of sludge from water and waste water treatment facilities in projects to improve soil quality, and to protect other specific areas of the planning unit which need special protection by the planning unit.

HB 887, AN ACT relating to family preservation services for children at risk of out-of-home placement.

(1) The General Assembly finds that all adults have the fundamental right to control the decisions relating to their own medical care, including the decision to have medical or surgical means or procedures calculated to prolong their lives provided, withheld or withdrawn.

(2) In order that the dignity, privacy and sanctity of adults with terminal conditions may be respected even after they are no longer able to participate actively in decisions concerning their medical care, the General Assembly hereby declares that the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky shall recognize the right of an adult to make a written declaration pursuant to the provisions of Section 3 of this Act, instructing the adult's physician to withhold or withdraw life-prolonging treatment in the event such person is diagnosed as having a terminal condition.

SECTION 2. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 311 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

As used in this Act:

(1) "Adult" means a person eighteen (18) years of age or older and who is of sound mind.

(2) "Attending physician" means the physician who has primary responsibility for the treatment and care of the patient.

(3) "Declaration" means a witnessed document in writing, voluntarily made by the declarant in accordance with the requirements of Section 3 of this Act.

(4) "Health care facility" means any institution, place, building, agency or portion thereof, public or private, whether organized for profit or not, used, operated or designed to provide medical diagnosis, treatment, nursing, rehabilitative or preventive care, and licensed pursuant to KRS Chapter 216B.

(5) "Life-prolonging treatment" means any medical procedure, treatment or intervention which:

(a) Utilizes mechanical or other artificial means to sustain, prolong, restore or supplant a spontaneous vital function or is otherwise of such a nature as to afford a patient no reasonable expectation of recovery from a terminal condition; and

(b) When applied to a patient in a terminal condition, would serve only to prolong the dying process. "Life-prolonging treatment" shall not include the administration of medication or the performance of any medical procedure deemed necessary to alleviate pain or for nutrition or hydration.

(6) "Physician" means a person licensed to practice medicine in the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

(7) "Qualified patient" means an adult patient of sound mind who has:

(a) Made a declaration in accordance with this Act;

(b) Been diagnosed by the attending physician and one (1) other physician as having a terminal condition, with said condition noted by both in the patient's medical record; and

(c) Who is not known to be pregnant provided that for any adult woman of child-bearing age who has made a declaration and been diagnosed in writing as having a terminal condition, the attending physician shall cause a test to be made to determine if the woman is pregnant.

(8) "Terminal condition" means a condition caused by injury, disease or illness which, to a reasonable degree of medical probability, as determined solely by the qualified patient's attending physician and one (1) other physician, is incurable and irreversible and will result in death within a relatively short time, and where the application of life-prolonging treatment would serve only to artificially prolong the dying process.

SECTION 3. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 311 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) An adult may, prior to or after having been diagnosed as having a terminal condition, make a written declaration directing the withholding or withdrawal of life-prolonging treatment.

A declaration made pursuant to this section shall be substantially in the following form, and may include other specific directions. Should any other specific directions be held by a court of appropriate jurisdiction to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the declaration.*

Declaration

Declaration made this ______ day of _________, ___ (month, year). I, ________________, willfully and voluntarily make known my desire that my dying shall not be artificially prolonged under the circumstances set forth below, and do hereby declare:

If at any time I should have a terminal condition and my attending and one (1) other physician in their discretion, have determined such condition is incurable and irreversible and will result in death within a relatively short time, and where the application of life-prolonging treatment would serve only to artificially prolong the dying process, I direct that such treatment be withheld or withdrawn, and that I be permitted to die naturally with only the administration of medication or the performance of any medical treatment deemed necessary to alleviate pain or for nutrition or hydration.

In the absence of my ability to give directions regarding the use of such life-prolonging treatment, it is my intention that this declaration shall be honored by my attending physician and my family as the final expression of my legal right to refuse medical or surgical treatment and I accept the consequences of such refusal.

If I have been diagnosed as pregnant and that diagnosis is known to my attending physician, this directive shall have no force or effect during the course of my pregnancy.

I understand the full import of this declaration and I am emotionally and mentally competent to make this declaration.

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet shall not, except as provided in subsection (2), promulgate or enforce any administrative regulation, rule, requirement, or policy, including any existing administrative regulation, rule, requirement or policy, which is more stringent than the regulation, rule, requirement or policy that would be applicable under federal authority. The cabinet shall not apply its administrative regulations, rules, requirements, or policies in a manner that would impose more stringent obligations than would have been imposed under applicable federal authorities.

(2) The cabinet may promulgate administrative regulations, rules, or requirements which are more stringent than federal requirements if there are no requirements applicable under federal authority. Delegation of federal authority to the cabinet shall not be deemed to create a void in federal regulation. The cabinet may promulgate administrative regulations, rules, or requirements which are more stringent than federal requirements where the cabinet determines that it is necessary in order to address unique environmental circumstances in the Commonwealth. The cabinet shall base its determination as to the existence of unique environmental circumstances on environmental and physical conditions which are present in the Commonwealth and which are fundamentally different from conditions in other areas, but shall not base its determination solely on geographic boundaries. Any determination shall be made after notice and comment and shall be based upon a specific finding that federal regulations, rules, requirements, or policies are clearly inadequate to protect the public interest. The cabinet shall set forth any determination in the federal mandate analysis prepared in accordance with KRS 13A.245.

(3) Within six (6) months of the effective date of this section, the cabinet shall complete a review of its existing administrative regulations and repeal, revise, modify, or continue in effect any administrative regulations as necessary to conform with the requirements of this section. If any administrative regulation is continued in effect pursuant to subsection (2), the cabinet shall set forth the basis for its determination in the federal mandate analysis prepared in accordance with KRS 13A.245.

(4) Any administrative regulation which is promulgated or continued in effect by the cabinet pursuant to subsection (2) and which imposes requirements that are more stringent than applicable federal requirements shall remain in effect only to the extent codified in whole or in part by the General Assembly in the first regular legislative session following promulgation of the administrative regulation or a determination to continue in effect and existing administrative regulation. To the extent that the administrative regulation is not codified by the General Assembly, it shall be of no force and effect on and after the effective date for acts of that session of the General Assembly.

If the cabinet promulgates a new regulation, rule or policy or continues in effect an existing regulation, rule or policy in accordance with this subsection, the cabinet shall include in the federal mandate analysis prepared in accordance with KRS 13A.245 a detailed statement of the basis for its determination that a more stringent state regulation, rule or policy is necessary, appropriate, and authorized by this subsection.

*(3) (a) The cabinet shall, prior to filing any proposed regulation, rule or policy with the Legislative Research Commission, issue general public notice of its intent to promulgate a new regulation, rule or policy and hold a hearing, open to the public, on the proposed regulatory action. The supplement paid each police officer shall be in addition to his regular salary.

SB 186. AN ACT relating to retirement.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 78.530 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each county and school board, as defined in KRS 78.510, will participate in the system by appropriate order authorizing such participation which has been entered and duly recorded in the records of the governing body of the county or school board. In cases where general purpose county government does not participate, but the sheriff and his employees or the county clerk and his employees do, the sheriff or the clerk shall retain the order in his office. The authority to issue and properly record such order of participation being hereby granted, permits such county to participate in the system. The effective date of such participation shall be fixed in the order.

(2) Once a county or school board participates, it shall thereafter continue to participate except as provided in KRS 78.535.

(3) (a) Concurrent with the adoption of the appropriate resolution to participate in the system, a county may elect the alternate participation plan which will require the county to purchase on behalf of each employee electing coverage, at the time the county elected to participate in the system as provided under KRS 78.540(2), current service credit for employment in regular full-time positions between July 1, 1958, and the participation date of the county. Cities which participate in the system pursuant to subsection (7) of this section, KRS 79.080, 90.400, 90.410, 95.520, 95.621, 95.761, 95.768, 95.852, or 96.180 shall be required to purchase on behalf of each employee electing coverage only as much service credit as the employee has accumulated in the city-administered plan, up to the participation date of the city. Accumulated service shall include service for which an employee received a refund pursuant to KRS 95.620 or 95.866, if such refund has been repaid. If the employee has not yet repaid the refund, he may make payment to the system by any method acceptable to the system, and the requirement of five (5) years of continuous reemployment prior to repayment of refunds shall not apply. Upon the employee's repayment, the city shall purchase the associated service credit for the employee. Cost of such service credit over and above that which would be funded within the existing employer contribution rate shall be determined by the board's consulting actuary. The expense of such actuarial service shall be paid by the county;

(b) The county shall establish a payment schedule subject to approval by the board for payment of the cost of such service over and above that which would be funded within the existing employer contribution rate. The maximum period allowed in a payment schedule shall be thirty (30) years, with interest at the rate actuarially assumed by the board. A shorter period is desirable and the board may approve any payment schedule provided it is not longer than a thirty (30) year period, except that cities which participate in the system pursuant to subsection (7) of this section, KRS 79.080, 90.400, 90.410, 95.520, 95.621, 95.761, 95.768, 95.852, or 96.180 may, at their option, extend the payment schedule to a maximum of thirty (30) years, may choose to make level payments at the interest rate actuarially assumed by the board over the life of the payment schedule chosen, and may retain employer contributions and the earnings thereon attributable to employees electing coverage;

(c) A city entering the system under the alternate participation plan, may, by ordinance, levy a special property tax to pay for current service credit purchased for the period between July 1, 1958, and the participation date of the city. The special tax shall be to pay, within a period of no more than fifteen (15) years, for the cost of such service credit over that which would be funded within the existing employer contribution rate, as determined by the board's consulting actuary. The reason for levying the special tax and the disposition of the proceeds shall be part of the ordinance levying the tax. The special tax shall be rescinded when the unfunded prior service liability has been amortized, and shall not be subject to the provisions of KRS 132.017 or 132.027. The city shall not collect the special property tax if its participation has been terminated pursuant to KRS 78.535; and

(d) The county may at a later date purchase current service credit from July 1, 1958, to the participation date of the county by alternate participation plan for those employees who rejected membership in the system at the time the county first participated. In addition, the employer shall pay the employer contributions on the creditable compensation of the employees who later elect membership from the participation date of the county to the date the member elects participation. The employee shall pay the employee contributions on his creditable compensation from the participation date of the county to the date he elects membership plus interest at the current actuarial rate compounded annually on the employee and employer contributions. Cost of the service credit over and above that which would be funded within the existing employer contribution rate shall be determined by the board's consulting actuary. The expense of the actuarial service shall be paid by the county. The county shall pay the cost of the service by lump sum or by adding it to the existing payment schedule established under paragraph (b) of this subsection.

(e) A county which participated in the system but did not elect the alternate participation plan may at a later date elect the alternate participation plan. In this case, the county shall purchase on behalf of each employee participating in the system current service credit for employment in regular full-time positions between July 1, 1958, or a later date selected by the county government, and the participation date of the county. The county shall also purchase, for employees who decide to participate when the county elects the alternate participation plan, current service credit for employment in regular full-time positions between July 1, 1958, or the later date selected by the county government, and the participation date of the county. In addition, the county shall pay the employer contributions on the creditable compensation of the employees who later elect membership from the participation date of the county to the date the member elects participation. The employee shall pay the employee contributions on his creditable compensation from the participation date of the county to the date he elects membership plus interest at the current actuarial rate compounded annually on the employee and employer contributions. Cost of the service credit over that which would be funded within the existing employer contribution rate shall be determined by the board's consulting actuary. The expense of the actuarial service shall be paid by the county. The county shall pay the cost of the service by lump sum or by a payment schedule established under paragraph (b) of this subsection.

(4) Every school board not participating on June 21, 1974, shall enact a resolution of participation no later than July 1, 1976.

(5) The order of the governing body of a county, as provided for in subsection (1) of this section, may exclude from participation in the system hospitals and any other semi-independent agency. Each such excluded agency shall be identified in the order authorizing participation and such excluded agency may participate in the system as a separate agency.

(6) An agency whose participation in the County Employees Retirement System has been terminated by the board of trustees in accordance with KRS 78.535 may at a later date request participation in the retirement system by the adoption of an appropriate order as authorized by subsection (1) of this section. The board may accept the participation of such agency provided it is determined that such participation is in the best interest of the agency, the employees thereof and the County Employees Retirement System.

(7) After August 1, 1988, except as permitted by KRS 65.156, no local government retirement system shall be created pursuant to KRS 70.580 to 70.598 and any local government retirement systems created pursuant to KRS 79.080, 90.400, 90.410, 95.768 and KRS Chapter 96 shall be closed to new members. New employees who would have been granted membership in such retirement systems shall instead be granted membership in the County Employees Retirement System. Employees who would have been granted membership in retirement systems created pursuant to KRS 95.768, or any other policemen or fire fighters who would have been granted membership in retirement systems created pursuant to KRS 79.080, 90.400 or 90.410, or any such policemen or fire fighter members employed on or prior to August 1, 1988 who transfer to the County Employees Retirement System, shall be certified by their employers as working in hazardous positions. Each city participating in the County Employees Retirement System pursuant to this subsection shall execute the appropriate order authorizing such participation, shall select the alternate participation plan as described in subsection (3) of this section, and shall pay for the actuarial services necessary to determine the additional costs of alternate participation. Cities which closed their local pension systems to new members and participated in the system prior to July 15, 1988, whose employees at the time of transition were given the option to join the system shall not be required to offer said employees a second option to join the system.

(8) Any city which closed a police and firefighter pension plan to new members between January 1, 1988, and July 15, 1988, and participated in the system under the alternate participation plan shall, if its police and firefighters were not covered by social security, or any city which operates a pension under KRS 90.400 or 90.410, shall be required to certify that its police and firefighters are working in hazardous positions, and shall offer its police and firefighters in service at the time of entry a second option to participate under hazardous duty coverage if they were not offered hazardous duty coverage at the time of their first option. The provisions of subsection (3)(b) of this section notwithstanding, a city affected by this subsection may, at its option, extend its payment schedule to the County Employees Retirement System for alternate participation to thirty (30) years at the rate actuarially assumed by the board.

(2) No person shall be issued an agent's permit unless he is an individual of good moral character as determined by the board.

(3) Except as otherwise provided, no person shall be issued an agent's permit unless he shall make application upon forms to be provided by the board, and unless said application shall be accompanied by a fee as established by the board and a good and sufficient surety bond or other collateral as required by the board but not less than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(4) (a) The surety bond or other collateral shall be conditioned to provide indemnification to any student or enrollee who shall suffer loss or damage as a result of fraud or misrepresentation to said student or enrollee in procuring his enrollment in a course or courses of instruction or study offered or maintained by said proprietary school. The amount of liability on said surety bond or other collateral shall cover each agent each school year, as the term "school year" is defined in KRS 165A.310[~~(6)~~]. Regardless of the number of years that an agent's bond is in force, the aggregate liability of the surety bond shall, in no event, exceed the penal sum of the bond. The surety bond may be continuous.

(b) Any claimant may file with the board a duly verified claim against an agent. The board may consider a claim after ten (10) days' written notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, to such licensee of said complaint giving time and place of hearing thereon and if such claim is found to be correct and due to the claimant, and if the board cannot effect a settlement by persuasion and conciliation, the board shall make a demand upon the principal on such bond and the surety thereon, and if not paid shall bring an action on such bond in any court of record within the state of Kentucky.

(5) The surety bond may be of blanket form to cover more than one (1) agent for a proprietary school, but it shall provide the required minimum coverage for each agent.

(6) A surety on said bond may be released therefrom after said surety shall make a written notice thereof directed to the board at least thirty (30) days prior to said release.

(7) The surety bond shall cover the period of the agent's permit except when a surety shall be released in the manner as provided herein.

(8) Notwithstanding the provisions of other sections, the board may issue an agent's permit to each person who is an owner of more than ten percent (10%) legal interest in a proprietary school located in this state and who is a resident of this state, and no such owner shall be required to pay the agent's permit fee or execute an agent's surety bond as otherwise required by this section; provided, that said proprietary school shall have been issued a certificate of approval pursuant to the provisions of KRS 165A.310 to 165A.410.

(9) An agent's permit shall be suspended by operation of law when said agent is no longer covered by a surety bond or other collateral is withdrawn as required by KRS 165A.310 to 165A.410; but the board shall cause said agent to receive at least ten (10) days' written notice prior to the release of his surety to the effect that said permit shall be suspended by operation of law until another surety bond or other collateral shall be filed in the same manner and like amount as required by the board.

(10) An agent's permit shall be valid for a period of one (1) school year as herein defined, except when suspended or cancelled pursuant to these provisions. An agent's permit may be renewed in the same manner and under the same conditions prescribed for the issuance of an initial agent's permit.

The support services shall include but not be limited to interpreters and notetakers in the classroom, and equal access to all support services available to those who are not hearing impaired. Appropriate emergency warning devices shall be available in dormitories housing hearing impaired students.

(3) (a) Primary funding for support services at the institutions excluding costs of capital equipment or modifications for installation of warning devices shall come from vocational rehabilitation funds pursuant to Sections 36 to 38 of this Act [~~KRS 163.130 to 163.160~~] and subject to the restrictions and requirements for such services set forth in the federally-approved state plan for vocational rehabilitation services. The institutions of higher education and the office of vocational rehabilitation shall cooperate to assure that funds are used to effectively provide support services for hearing impaired students.

(b) The General Assembly shall appropriate funds to the Council on Higher Education to cover the costs of support services at the institutions for residents of Kentucky who are hearing impaired students and who do not qualify for support services from vocational rehabilitation funding or other sources of funding. The funds shall be distributed to institutions based upon actual costs of providing support services to individual students.

(c) The provision of support services to a hearing impaired student shall not be refused or delayed because of a disagreement between the institution and the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation as to who is responsible for funding. The funds shall be distributed to institutions based upon actual costs of providing support services to individual students.

The liability of an employer to another person who may be liable for or who has paid damages on account of injury or death of an employee of the [~~such~~] employer arising out of and in the course of employment and caused by a breach of any duty or obligation owed by the [~~such~~] employer to the [~~such~~] other shall be limited to the amount of compensation and other benefits for which the [~~such~~] employer is liable under this chapter on account of the [~~such~~] injury or death, unless the [~~such~~] other and the employer by written contract have agreed to share liability in a different manner. HB 908, AN ACT relating to workers' compensation.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 342.732 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, income benefits and retraining incentive benefits for occupational pneumoconiosis resulting from exposure to coal dust shall be paid as follows:

(a) If the administrative law judge finds that an employee has a radiographic classification of category 1/0, 1/1 or 1/2, based on the latest ILO International Classification of Radiographics, and no respiratory impairment resulting from exposure to coal dust based upon spirometric testing values of eighty percent (80%) or more of the predicted normal values contained in the chapter on the respiratory system in the latest edition available of the guides to the evaluation of permanent impairment published by the American Medical Association, he shall award a one time only retraining incentive benefit which shall be an amount equal to sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 2/3%) of the employee's average weekly wage but not more than seventy-five percent (75%) of the state average weekly wage as determined by KRS 342.740, multiplied by fifty percent (50%) and shall be payable for a period not to exceed two hundred and eight (208) weeks. The one time only retraining incentive benefit awarded under this paragraph may be collected semimonthly as provided in KRS 342.040, by the employee while he continues to work in the mining industry. The retraining incentive benefit may be collected in a lump sum when the employee leaves his hazardous employment in the mining industry if the parties agree and the agreement is approved by the administrative law judge. To file a claim under this paragraph a claimant may elect, in lieu of any other method or procedure, to be examined by a physician named by the board and paid for by the employer. Based upon this examination the administrative law judge may make appropriate findings and enter an award if indicated. A claimant or employer aggrieved by a decision of the administrative law judge shall have forty-five (45) days to file an appeal to the board as provided by KRS 342.285.

(b) If the administrative law judge finds that an employee has a radiographic classification of category 1/0, 1/1 or 1/2, based on the latest ILO International Classification of Radiographics, and respiratory impairment resulting from exposure to coal dust as evidenced by spirometric test values of fifty-five percent (55%) or more but less than eighty percent (80%) of the predicted normal values, contained in the chapter on the respiratory system of the latest edition available of the guides to the evaluation of permanent impairment published by the American Medical Association, there shall be an irrebuttable presumption that the employee has an occupational disability rating of seventy-five percent (75%) resulting from exposure to coal dust and the administrative law judge shall award an income benefit which shall be an amount equal to sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 2/3%) of the employee's average weekly wage multiplied by the disability rating of seventy-five (75%) but not to exceed seventy-five percent (75%) of the state average weekly wage as determined by KRS 342.740. The award shall be payable for a period not to exceed four hundred and twenty-five (425) weeks.

(c) If the administrative law judge finds that an employee has a radiographic classification of category 1/0, 1/1 or 1/2, based on the latest ILO International Classification of Radiographics, and respiratory impairment as evidenced by spirometric test values of less than fifty-five percent (55%) of the predicted normal values, contained in the chapter on the respiratory system of the latest edition available of the guides to the evaluation of permanent impairment published by the American Medical Association, there shall be an irrebuttable presumption that the employee is totally disabled resulting from exposure to coal dust and the administrative law judge shall award income benefits which shall be equal to sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 2/3%) of the employee's average weekly wage but not more than one hundred percent (100%) of the state average weekly wage and not less than twenty percent (20%) of the state average weekly wage as determined by KRS 342.740. Income benefits awarded under this paragraph shall be payable to the employee during such disability.

(d) If the administrative law judge finds that an employee has occupational pneumoconiosis with a radiographic classification of category 2/1, 2/2, 2/3, 3/2, 3/3 or progressive massive fibrosis, based on the latest ILO International Classification of Radiographics, there shall be an irrebuttable presumption that the employee is totally disabled resulting from exposure to coal dust and the administrative law judge shall award income benefits equal to sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 2/3%) of the employee's average weekly wage but not more than one hundred percent (100%) of the state average weekly wage and not less than twenty percent (20%) of the average weekly wage of the state as determined by KRS 342.740. Income benefits awarded under this paragraph shall be payable to the employee during such disability.

(2) The presence of respiratory impairment resulting from exposure to coal dust shall be established by using the largest forced vital capacity (FVC) value or the largest forced expiratory volume in one second (FEV1) value determined from the totality of all such spirometric testing performed in compliance with accepted medical standards. However, if the administrative law judge determines from the totality of all spirometric testing, performed in compliance with accepted medical standards, that the largest spirometric test values set out in this subsection do not accurately demonstrate the presence of respiratory impairment, he may determine the presence of respiratory impairment on the basis of the spirometric test values which he determines more accurately establishes the presence of respiratory impairment.

(3) When valid spirometric tests are not provided and a physician certifies to the administrative law judge that spirometric testing is not medically indicated because of the permanent physical condition of the employee, the administrative law judge shall make his decision on the basis of evidence admitted which establishes the existence of a diagnosis of occupational pneumoconiosis and respiratory impairment due to such occupational pneumoconiosis. The evidence submitted by the employee shall include one (1) or more arterial blood gas studies performed in accordance with accepted medical standards. Income benefits shall not be awarded in the absence of valid spirometric tests if the claimant's PO2 arterial blood gas value is equal to or higher than one (1) standard deviation from the normal value obtained by the formula (103.5 - 0.42X), where X equals the claimant's age at the time of the arterial blood gas study.

(4) The General Assembly declares that by the enactment of subsection (2)(b) of KRS 342.316, it is the legislative intent to encourage settlement and prompt administrative handling of such claims and thereby reduce expenses to claimants for compensation under the provisions of KRS 342.316, and the administrative law judge shall give due regard to such legislative intent in the handling of uncontested claims and the allowance of attorney's fees therein.

(5) The administrative law judge shall approve any contract between attorney and client if the limits on fees enumerated below are followed:

(a) When the claim is uncontested under the provisions of KRS 342.316 the attorney fee shall not exceed an amount equal to $750.00.

(b) In all other claims, the fee of the attorney shall not exceed a sum equal to twenty percent (20%) of the amount recovered, or $5000.00, whichever is less.

(6) (a) In a claim that has been reopened pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, an attorney fee may be awarded by the administrative law judge. In awarding the attorney fee, the administrative law judge shall consider:

1. The quality of services rendered by the attorney;

2. The amount awarded for attorney fees on the original award; and

3. The extent of the services rendered.

(b) Thereafter, the administrative law judge shall fix the attorney fee. No attorney fee shall be allowed or approved against any party not represented by said attorney, nor shall any attorney fee be allowed or approved exceeding an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of any additional amount recovered but shall not exceed three thousand two hundred and fifty dollars ($3,250). If there is no additional amount recovered in a reopened claim, there shall be no attorney fee.

STATE OF JUDICIARY ADDRESS
TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
BY: CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERT F. STEPHENS
MARCH 14, 1990

Governor Wilkinson, Lieutenant Governor Jones, President Pro Tempore Rose, Speaker Blandford, Senators, members of the House, Secretary of State Erhler, Attorney General Cowan, Fellow Justices and Judges, Circuit Court Clerks, guests of the General Assembly, friends, my family and my fellow Kentuckians.

It is with a sense of duty and with a sense of pleasure that I appear before this joint session of the Kentucky

General Assembly to deliver, as Chief Justice, my constitutionally mandated address of the State of the Judiciary in this Commonwealth.

Before proceeding with that task, I want to pause — for a moment — to express to this General Assembly and to its predecessors, on behalf of the nearly 2,300 employees of the Kentucky Court of Justice, our deepest appreciation for your continuing concern, interest and support of Kentucky's Judicial system. The mutual respect and cooperation between the Kentucky judicial branch of government and the Kentucky legislative branch of government is very rare in this country. At a recent historic national meeting, sponsored by the National Conference of State Legislators, the Conference of Chief Justices, and the National Center for State Courts, to address the problem of legislative-judicial relations, Kentucky was repeatedly cited as an example of how these two branches of government should relate to each other, while still preserving and respecting each other's constitutional duties and responsibilities. For your leadership in making this valued and unique relationship possible, I salute you. You certainly make my job easier, more productive, and more rewarding, all of which directly benefits those Kentucky citizens who are users of the judicial system.

When one ponders the condition of Kentucky's judiciary, one's conclusion depends upon one's perspective. For example, if you are the Chief Justice of Kentucky, with a daily continuing stream of complaints, problems, brush fires, requests for jobs, requests for pay raises, requests for everything from pencils to computers, and a myriad of other administrative problems, one would occasionally conclude that the Kentucky judicial system seems to be bogged down in a miasma of mistakes, confusion, delays and incompetence. I am sure these feelings are not unknown to the members of the General Assembly, who face similar problems and frustrations on a daily basis.

On the other hand, if one is a Chief Justice, or court administrator, of another state, or if one is a staff member of the National Center for State Courts, or if one is a student of the judiciary, one views Kentucky as having the finest judicial system in the United States, particularly with respect to its constitutional and statutory structure. That viewpoint would cite the uniform, integrated system, with the Supreme Court acting as a board of directors, with the Chief Justice as the chairman of the board. That viewpoint would acknowledge that the total funding of the courts by the General Assembly provides a strong vehicle to solve the problems of the business of judging, with regular input by the General Assembly. That viewpoint would give accolades to the General Assembly and to the people of Kentucky who, by the enactment of the Judicial Article in 1975, brought Kentucky's judicial system out of the dark ages and into leadership in this century.

Because I am Chief Justice, and because my time is filled with the day-by-day operation of the court system, I sometimes neglect to think about and recognize the absolute truth of that second viewpoint. Daily fatigue and frustration sometimes tend to diffuse the broad picture of any situation. Perhaps it is a matter of being too close to the trees to see the forest. It is my view, however, that, even with its problems, clearly Kentucky has the finest judicial system in the United States.

All of you know that, for the past 15-20 years, we have been in a litigation explosion in this country, and in this Commonwealth. Our case load — at all levels of the court system — has been on the increase. This increase is continuing and, although the rate of increase has slowed considerably, the difficulty and complexity factor of the cases has increased, thus necessitating more and more study time and thought by judges as they reach their decisions.

Because of the assistance the General Assembly has given us over the years, and because we have made many administrative changes, we have managed to handle, at least in part, that increasingly complex case load. Our overall annual disposition rate has increased and the overall length of time for disposition of cases has also dropped every year. The bottom line is that we are getting more work done and we are getting it done more quickly. The positive achievements have been primarily due to the efforts of individual judges who, after recognizing the problem, have made great personal efforts, and have effectively used the technological and administrative devices with which we have provided them.

We have addressed the problem of appellate delay by the use of video taping systems which are now installed in 37 courtrooms in the Commonwealth. Today, transcripts of evidence are ready immediately upon completion of the trial, and six hours of testimony, (which are totally accurate and not subject to human error) is available to litigants for $15.00 while a normal transcript would cost $750-$1,000 and would take weeks or months to complete. In long trials, the results are even more dramatic.

Since I have last talked with you, the Ford Foundation and the John F. Kennedy School of Government, at Harvard, honored Kentucky Video Courts with one of its $100,000 innovations awards for excellence in state and local government. More than 1,000 applicants for those awards are received each year. Moreover, Kentucky's lead in the use of video taping of trials is being followed by 12-15 states, and the federal government. While other recordation systems are floundering in the past, our video system has thrust Kentucky into the 21st century. Our video system is the wave of the future. The taxpayers and the litigants who pay the freight in the judicial system are the direct beneficiaries of this system. Our commitment to further expand and improve the system is a firm one.

In 1986, the General Assembly passed a far reaching bill which mandated that the Court of Justice develop a system to keep broad-based statistical data of the activities of the Kentucky Courts. Although no financial appropriation was made in that Act, we have responded by developing a local-state computer information system which will comply with the mandate. We have pilot projects — installed and functioning — in four counties — Johnson, Clark, Warren and Kenton. We are now ready to proceed, full bore, with the implementation of the statewide system and meet the mandate of the General Assembly. In our budget for 1990-1992 we have sought funds for installation of the computers — called SUSTAIN — in 36 counties. In the foreseeable future, the information mandated by the General Assembly will be available. This system will attack court delay by allowing judges to manage their dockets and will bring more "sunshine" into the court system.

Since the implementation of the new Judicial Article, in 1976-1978 — the AOC has been responsible for providing all courthouse space. Since 1976, with your appropriations, we have assisted local governments in building or remodeling 40 courthouses. We have, in that process, seen the cost of construction rise to $100 per square foot. Nearly 25% of the space we provide is for storage of the incredible amount of paperwork with which we have been inundated. Two years ago I made mention to you of a "Paperless Court." I can report to you today that — in Jefferson County — the process has begun. Two so-called laser optical disc storage units have been installed and are working. Each storage disc, about the size of an old "78" record, holds 128,000 pages of legal sized paper. A whole years work can be literally kept in a small filing cabinet, instead of 1200-1500 square feet of precious and expensive office space. A readily accessible and simple index makes the individual pages available for inspection and printing. Kentucky again, has achieved a first. We would like to continue with refining of this technology and broadening its use.

We are planning a statewide system to use modern facsimile machines. This system, under special rules of procedure, will serve litigants and attorneys well by being available in all circuit clerks offices. No longer will litigants and attorneys suffer the expense and stress of meeting procedural deadlines by often unreliable mail or even personal delivery.

I take pleasure in reporting to the people of this Commonwealth that the Kentucky Supreme Court, with the help of many people, has adopted a new and more stringent code of professional ethics. In order to further sensitize attorneys as to their ethical standards, we have passed a rule which requires all law students to pass a national examination on ethics before they are eligible to even take the bar examination. We have strengthened our mandatory continuing legal education for judges and lawyers. Along with the Kentucky Bar Association, we have established a blue ribbon commission to study, identify and eliminate gender bias in the legal profession and in the courts of this Commonwealth. The President of the KBA and myself, are in the process of establishing a similar blue ribbon commission to search out and eliminate racial bias in our judicial system. The Kentucky Bar Association is in the process of reviewing, with the assistance of the ABA, the entire process of lawyer discipline.

One of the great weaknesses of the legal system in the country, and in Kentucky, is the failure of too many lawyers to involve themselves in the lives and needs of their community. Too many of us have forgotten the traditional and historical role of lawyers. As a beginning, we have passed a voluntary rule which authorizes the interest earned on attorneys trust accounts to be used in a statewide program, called IOLTA, whose purpose is primarily to fund programs which provide legal services for the indigent. Recently, over $200,000 in grants were made. This is just a beginning.

One last point in this area. Because of the limited amount of funds — both state and federal — available to provide legal service for the poor, I will soon propose to the Supreme Court a rule which will require each and every attorney to donate a regular amount of his or her time for pro bono work. I believe this is a small price for attorneys to pay for the privilege of practicing law in this great Commonwealth.

As I indicated earlier, much has been done, but much, much more remains to be done, so that the Kentucky judicial system lives up to those great purposes for which it was enacted. I can assure you and the people of the Commonwealth that each and every member of the Kentucky Supreme Court is dedicated to seeing that such goal is reached.

I will not dwell on the Court of Justice budget. Suffice it to say that I am keenly aware of the many monumental task before you this session. Our budget, which is somewhat less than 2.2% of the Governor's proposed budget, is small, in comparison to other demands placed on you this session. Needless to say, however, it is critical to the continuing success of the court system, and to the solving of present and future problems, that you give it every possible consideration. We have appeared before both Appropriation and Revenue Committees and have answered questions. As all of you know, I am always available — at your pleasure — to answer any questions you might have or to consider any suggestion you might make. The budget document provided to you represents a realistic evaluation of the needs of the Court of Justice for the next two years. Your favorable consideration will be greatly appreciated.

So much for yesterday and today. What about tomorrow? What about the decade of the 1990's. With your indulgence, I would like to spend a few minutes more of your precious time, and take out my somewhat dusty crystal ball. I would like to respectfully suggest some items which I believe are deserving of your attention, as we enter the last decade of this century.

To begin with, I hope that in the next two years you will give some thought to the process of selecting judges in the Commonwealth. There is no doubt in my mind that our present method of electing judges is one whose time is coming to an end. Thirty-five states and the District of Columbia have adopted some form of retention election. As the big monied, special interests turn their attention, and their money, to the election of judges, the quality of objective, non-political justice will diminish. I submit that SB 308 is a good example of what can and should be done. This bill, will, in my opinion, cure the only major flaw in our judicial article.

A continuing problem is the compensation of judges. We must continue to attract and keep quality men and women on the bench. In the past year, we have lost four Circuit Judges in our system who were attracted by the much greater compensation offered by private firms. Financial sacrifice will always be a part of public service, but we must be sure that judicial salaries will keep pace so that the alure of the private sector does not become overwhelming. I would suggest to you that a committee on judicial compensation be established by this body, and that its task be to evaluate judicial compensation, on a continuing basis.

In our Circuit Courts, over 53% of the civil dockets are domestic relations cases. Those cases are, normally, highly emotionally charged, and seem to last forever. The impact of divorces on society, in general, and on the affected children, in particular, can be devastating. To be candid with you, I'm not sure that any court system is doing a satisfactory job. I can tell you that there is a school of thought developing, albeit slowly, in this country, that recommends that many of the traditional functions of courts in divorce cases should be removed from the courts and assigned to professionals who are better qualified to solve those problems. I do not necessarily agree with those views, but, I believe you should join with the court system and, at least, consider them.

This General Assembly is well aware of the problem of the disparity of the case load in the District Courts and Circuit Courts of this state. In response to the problem, several years ago I created a system of regional judges, the main purpose of which was to assign cases from the judges who had an excessive case load to those judges who did not. I can report to you that while those efforts met with modest success, the problem still exists. For example, in Letcher County, the Circuit Judge has 421 cases per year, while in Pulaski and Rockcastle Counties, the Circuit Judge has 1,334 cases per year. Yet, the two men get the same compensation. The situation is the same in the District Courts. I must tell you that re-circuiting and re-districting is the only answer. When the circuits and districts were created, in 1976 and 1978, there was much "guesstimating" in creating them. Since then, populations have shifted and the resulting changes in case loads have exacerbated the problem. Re-districting and re-circuiting are a massive and politically risky task. This is particularly true when one considers that re-circuiting also affects Commonwealth Attorneys. I suggest to you that the General Assembly and the Supreme Court create a long range planning committee to work on this problem.

In the past year, I have had the occasion to review the work of the new Workers Compensation Board and the new administrative law judges. In my opinion, the concept and the work product, have been superior. I suggest to you that the General Assembly should consider the creation of a whole layer of administrative law judges to deal with the growing legal issues in the area of administrative law. It seems to me that the results achieved in the workers compensation area could be duplicated in the Public Service Commission, the Department of Transportation, Cabinet for Human Resources, and all other state agencies. There is available to you a wealth of research done by the American Law Institute in their proposed model administrative code. I suggest that such a code — tailored to Kentucky's needs — would be a measurable improvement over the present system.

From 1976 through 1979, I was Attorney General of the Commonwealth. During that time, we developed the so-called Unified Prosecutorial System. Since 1979, I have been on the bench and my experience and interest in the criminal justice system has not lessened. I fought long and hard, in the late 1970's, to retain the system of the County Attorneys and the Commonwealth Attorneys, most of whom are part-time. I now believe that my advocacy was misplaced. Effective prosecution at a local level, and at an appellate level, I believe would be better served and achieved by the concept of one full time local prosecutor who would "handle" the cases in the District Courts and in the Circuit Courts. Policies would be uniform and much waste, duplication and inefficiency would be eliminated and professionalism would be increased. The limited resources available to prosecutors would be better used. I know this is controversial, but I believe it is an idea whose time has come. I suggest to you that the General Assembly, the Attorney General, and the prosecutors of the Commonwealth, should begin a study of this problem.

Ancillary to the last suggestion, is the need for more full time public defenders and a generous increase in the compensation of these dedicated and hard working men and women. While theirs is not a "popular cause," the Department of Public Advocacy truly serves as a champion and sentinel of our most cherished legal principle — innocent until proven guilty. Theirs is an invaluable dedication to public service without which many would be denied access to justice.

One of the great criticisms that the judicial system sustains is the fact that judges do their work in the same local areas where they are selected — by whatever method. Prejudice or at least the appearance of prejudice, and favoritism, are thought to be present. The people demand and deserve judges who have no friends, who have no bias, and who have no political favors to repay. I know this is an idealistic dream, but it is one which can be achieved. For example, in North Carolina, Trial Judges do not sit in the same districts from which they are elected. It works. I would like to suggest that the General Assembly and the Supreme Court, together, study this as a possibility as we enter the 1990's.

There are many other areas in which I believe improvements in the legal system could be made. I am sure you have many ideas of your own. I hope you will consider these suggestions in the spirit in which they have been given — with respect.

As Senator Rose said to you in his speech on the State of Legislative Branch, separately we can't achieve anything, but together we can accomplish anything. Our state motto — "United We Stand, Divided We Fall" — further reminds us of the mutual benefits of our continued partnership.

Thank you for your support in the past, at present, and in the future.

NOW, THEREFORE,

SECTION 4. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 131 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The following rules, principles or requirements shall apply in the administration of all taxes subject to the jurisdiction of the Revenue Cabinet.

(1) The cabinet shall develop and implement a Kentucky tax education and information program directed at new taxpayers, taxpayer and industry groups and cabinet employees to enhance the understanding of and compliance with Kentucky tax laws, including the application of new tax legislation to taxpayer activities and areas of recurrent taxpayer noncompliance or inconsistency of administration.

(2) The cabinet shall publish brief statements in simple and nontechnical language which explain procedures, remedies and the rights and obligations of taxpayers and the cabinet. The cabinet may make similar audio recordings only if prior written notice is given to the taxpayer. The taxpayer shall be entitled to a copy of such cabinet recording or a transcript thereof as provided in KRS 61.874.

(6) If any taxpayer's failure to submit a timely return or payment to the cabinet is due to the taxpayer's reasonable reliance on written advice from the cabinet, the taxpayer shall be relieved of any penalty or interest with respect thereto provided the taxpayer requested such advice in writing from the cabinet and the specific facts and circumstances of the activity or transaction were fully described in the taxpayer's request, the cabinet did not subsequently rescind or modify the advice in writing and there were no subsequent changes in applicable laws or regulations or a final decision of a court which rendered the cabinet's earlier written advice no longer valid.

(8) The cabinet shall include with each notice of tax due a clear and concise description of the basis and amount of any tax, penalty and interest assessed against the taxpayer. Taxpayers shall be similarly notified regarding the denial or reduction of any refund or credit claim filed by a taxpayer.

(9) Taxpayers shall have the right to an installment payment agreement for the payment of delinquent taxes, penalties and interest owed provided the taxpayer requests the agreement in writing clearly demonstrating his inability to pay in full and that the agreement will facilitate collection by the cabinet of the amounts owed. The cabinet may modify or terminate an installment payment agreement if it determines the taxpayer has not complied with the terms of the agreement; the taxpayers' financial condition has sufficiently changed; the taxpayer fails to provide any requested financial condition update information; the taxpayer gave false or misleading information in securing the agreement; or the taxpayer fails to timely report and pay any other tax due the Commonwealth. The cabinet shall give written notice to the taxpayer at least thirty (30) days prior to modifying or terminating an installment payment agreement unless the cabinet has reason to believe that collection of the amounts owed will be jeopardized in whole or in part by delay.

(11) In addition to the circumstances under which an extension of time for filing reports or returns may be granted pursuant to KRS 131.170, taxpayers shall be entitled to the same extension of the due date of any comparable Kentucky tax report or return for which the taxpayer has secured a written extension from the Internal Revenue Service provided the taxpayer notifies the cabinet thereof in writing and provides a copy of such extension at the time and in the manner which the cabinet may require.

(12) The cabinet shall bear the cost or, if paid by the taxpayer, reimburse the taxpayer for recording or bank charges as the direct result of any erroneous lien or levy by the cabinet, provided the erroneous lien or levy was caused by cabinet error and, prior to issuance of the erroneous lien or levy, the taxpayer timely responded to all contacts by the cabinet and provided information or documentation sufficient to establish his or her position. When the cabinet releases any such erroneous lien or levy, notice of the fact shall be mailed to the taxpayer and, if requested by the taxpayer, a copy of the release, together with an explanation thereof, shall be mailed to the major credit reporting companies located in the county where it was filed.

(13) The cabinet shall not evaluate individual officers or employees on the basis of taxes assessed or collected or impose or suggest tax assessment or collection quotas or goals.

(14) Taxpayers shall have the right to bring an action for damages against the Commonwealth in Franklin Circuit Court for actual and direct monetary damages sustained by the taxpayer as a result of willful, reckless and intentional disregard by cabinet employees of the rights of taxpayers as set out in this Act or in the tax laws administered by the cabinet. If an action which could be brought against the Commonwealth of Kentucky under this section is brought against any officer or employee of the Commonwealth of Kentucky or former officer or employee or his personal representative, the court shall order, upon such terms as are just, that the pleadings be amended to substitute the Commonwealth of Kentucky as a party for the officer or employee as of the time the action was commenced. In the awarding of damages pursuant to this subsection, the court shall take into consideration the negligence or omissions, if any, on the part of the taxpayer which contributed to the damages. If any such proceeding brought by a taxpayer is ruled frivolous by the court, the cabinet shall be reimbursed by the taxpayer for its costs in defending the action.

(15) Taxpayers shall have the right to privacy with regard to the information provided on their Kentucky tax returns and reports, including any information or documents attached thereto. Except as provided by KRS 131.190, no information pertaining to such returns, reports or the affairs of a person's business shall be divulged by the cabinet to any person.

Section 5. KRS 131.183 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All taxes payable to the Commonwealth not paid at the time prescribed by statute shall accrue interest at the tax interest rate. The tax interest rate for tax liabilities that are assessed on or after July 1, 1982, shall be sixteen percent (16%). This tax interest rate shall apply until January 1, 1983, when the tax interest rate shall be adjusted as provided in this section. The secretary of revenue shall adjust the tax interest rate not later than November 15 of any year, beginning in 1982, if the adjusted prime rate charged by banks during October of that year, rounded to the nearest full percent, is at least one (1) percentage point more or less than the tax interest rate which is then in effect. The tax interest rate shall be equal to the adjusted prime rate charged by banks rounded to the nearest full percent, and shall become effective on January 1 of the immediately succeeding year.

(2) [~~Except for the provisions of KRS 141.044(2) and KRS 141.235(3),~~] Interest shall be allowed and paid upon any overpayment in respect of any of the taxes provided for in Chapters 131, 132, 134, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 143A, and 243 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes at [~~a rate equal to 75% of~~] the rate provided in subsection (1) above. Except for the provisions of KRS 141.044(2) and 141.235(3), interest authorized under this subsection shall begin to accrue sixty (60) days after the due date of the return or the date the tax was paid, whichever is later, and in no case shall interest be paid in an amount less than five dollars ($5.00).

Section 6. KRS 131.500 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to any other remedy provided by the laws of the Commonwealth, if any person has been assessed for a tax the collection of which is administered by the Revenue Cabinet as provided by the laws of the Commonwealth and if such person has not sought administrative or judicial review of the assessment as provided for in KRS 131.110, or if such person has sought but exhausted all administrative and judicial review so that the assessment is final, due and owing, then the secretary of revenue or his delegate may cause a demand to be made on the person for the payment thereof. If the tax remains unpaid for thirty (30) [~~ten (10)~~] days after the demand, then the secretary or his delegate may levy upon and sell all property and rights to property found within the Commonwealth belonging to such person or on which there is a lien provided by KRS 134.420, except such property as is exempt from an execution on a judgment in favor of the Commonwealth as provided in KRS Chapter 427, for the payment of the amount of the tax, penalty, interest and cost of the levy.

(2) As soon as practicable after seizure of property, notice in writing shall be given by the secretary or his delegate to the owner of the property. The notice shall be given to the owner either in person or by certified mail to his last known address. Such notice shall specify the sum demanded and shall contain, in the case of personal property, an account of the property seized and, in the case of real property, a description with reasonable certainty of the property seized.

(3) The secretary or his delegate shall as soon as practicable after the seizure of the property cause a notification of the sale of the seized property to be published in the newspaper with the largest circulation within the county wherein such seizure is made. Such notice shall be published once each week for three (3) successive weeks. In addition, such notice shall be posted at the courthouse and three (3) other public places in the county where the seizure is made for fifteen (15) days next preceding sale. The notice shall specify the property to be sold, and the time, place, manner, and condition of the sale thereof.

(4) If any property liable to levy is not divisible, so as to enable the secretary or his delegate by sale of a part thereof to raise the whole amount of the tax, penalty, interest and cost of the levy, the whole of such property shall be sold.

(5) The time of sale shall not be less than thirty (30) nor more than ninety (90) days from the time the seizure is made. The place of sale shall be within the county in which the property is seized, except by special order of the secretary.

(6) The sale shall not be conducted in any manner other than by public auction, or by public sale under sealed bids. In the case of the seizure of several items of property, the secretary or his delegate may offer such items for sale separately, in groups, or in the aggregate and accept whichever method produces the highest aggregate amount.

(7) The secretary or his delegate shall determine whether payment in full shall be required at the time of acceptance of a bid, or whether a part of such payment may be deferred for such period, not to exceed one (1) month, as he may determine to be appropriate. If payment in full is required at the time of acceptance of a bid and is not then and there paid, the secretary or his delegate shall forthwith proceed to again sell the property as provided in subsection (6) of this section. If the conditions of the sale permit part of the payment to be deferred, and if such part is not paid, within the prescribed period, suit may be instituted in the Franklin Circuit Court or the Circuit Court of the county where the sale was conducted against the purchaser for the purchase price or such part thereof as has not been paid, together with interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum from the date of the sale; or, in the discretion of the secretary, the sale may be declared to be null and void for failure to make full payment of the purchase price and the property may again be advertised and sold as provided in this section. In the event of such readvertisement and sale, any new purchaser shall receive such property or rights to property, free and clear of any claim or right of the former defaulting purchaser, of any nature whatsoever, and the amount paid upon the bid price by such defaulting purchaser shall be forfeited.

(8) If the secretary or his delegate determines that any property seized is liable to perish or become greatly reduced in price or value by keeping, or that such property cannot be kept without great expense, he shall appraise the value of such property and, if the owner of the property can be readily found, the secretary or his delegate shall give him notice of such determination of the appraised value of the property.

The property shall be returned to the owner if, within such time as may be specified in the notice, the owner pays to the secretary or his delegate an amount equal to the appraised value, or gives bond in such form, with such sureties, and in such amount as the secretary or his delegate determines to be appropriate in the circumstances. If the owner does not pay such amount or furnish such bond in accordance with this subsection, the secretary or his delegate shall as soon as practicable make public sale of the property without regard to the advertisement requirements or the time limitations contained in subsections (3) and (5) of this section.

(9) No proceedings under this section shall be commenced more than five (5) years after the assessment becomes final.

(10) The term "levy" as used in this section includes the power of distraint and seizure by any means. Except as otherwise provided in KRS 131.510(2)(a), a levy shall extend only to property possessed and obligations existing at the time thereof. In any case in which the secretary or his delegate may levy upon property or rights to property, he may seize and sell such property or rights whether real, personal, tangible or intangible.

Section 7. KRS 134.580 is amended to read as follows:

(1) When money has been paid into the State Treasury in payment of any state taxes, except ad valorem taxes, whether payment was made voluntarily or involuntarily, the Revenue Cabinet shall authorize refunds or credits, to the person who paid the tax, or to his heirs, personal representatives or assigns, of [~~or~~] any overpayment of tax and any payment where no tax was due. When a bona fide controversy exists between the cabinet and the taxpayer as to the liability of the taxpayer for the payment of tax claimed to be due by the cabinet, the taxpayer may pay the amount claimed by the cabinet to be due, and if an appeal is taken by the taxpayer from the ruling of the cabinet within the time provided by KRS 131.340 and it is finally adjudged that the taxpayer was not liable for the payment of the tax or any part thereof, the cabinet shall authorize such refund or credit as the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals or courts may direct.

(2) [~~In the event refunds or credits result from clerical error of the cabinet or its agents, but not otherwise,~~] Refunds or credits shall be authorized with interest as provided in KRS 131.183 [~~at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6)~~]. The refunds authorized by this section shall be made in the same manner as other claims on the State Treasury are paid. They shall not be charged against any appropriation, but shall be deducted from tax receipts for the current fiscal year.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the cabinet to make or cause to be made any refund except within four (4) years of the due date of the return or [~~from~~] the date the money was paid into the State Treasury, whichever is the later, except that, in any case where the assessment period has been extended by written agreement between the taxpayer and the cabinet, the limitation contained in this subsection shall be extended accordingly. Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring the cabinet to authorize any refund or credit to a taxpayer without demand from the taxpayer, if in the opinion of the cabinet the cost to the state of authorizing the refund or credit would be greater than the amount that should be refunded or credited.

(4) The terms "overpayment" and "payment where no tax was due" as used in this section shall be construed as referring to tax liability under the terms of the applicable statute without reference to the constitutionality of the statute. It is not intended that this section shall apply to any case wherein the statute may be held unconstitutional, either in whole or in part.

(5) In cases in which a statute has been held unconstitutional, taxes paid thereunder may be refunded to the extent provided by KRS 134.590, and by the statute held unconstitutional.

A department shall make payment for such service credit within the same fiscal year in which the option is elected. The county shall establish a payment schedule subject to approval by the board for payment of such service credit. The cost will be determined by computing the member and employer contributions for the period of time involved plus interest compounded annually at the current actuarial rate, which shall not be picked up by the employer as described in KRS 61.560(4).

(12) A retired member, who is contributing to one (1) of the state administered retirement programs and purchases service credit under this section in the system or systems from which he is retired, will have his retirement allowance recomputed:

Multiple service purchases may be combined under a single installment purchase; however, no employee may make more than one (1) installment purchase at the same time. The employee may elect to stop the installment payments by notifying the retirement system; or may have the installment purchase recalculated to add one (1) or more additional service purchases or may pay by lump sum the remaining principal.

(b) Twelve (12) consecutive monthly installment payments will be made for each one thousand dollars ($1,000) or any part thereof of the total cost, except that the total number of installments shall not be less than twelve (12) and shall not exceed sixty (60).

The first service credited shall represent the first calendar month of the service to be purchased and each succeeding month of service credit shall represent the succeeding months of that service.

(e) If the employee dies, retires, terminates employment or does not continue employment in a position required to participate in the retirement system, the member, or in the case of death, the beneficiary, shall have thirty (30) days to pay the remaining principal of the purchase by lump sum. If the member or beneficiary does not pay the remaining cost, the retirement system shall refund to the member or the beneficiary the payment, payments or portion of a payment that does not represent a full month of service purchased.

(f) If the employer does not report installment payments on an employee for sixty (60) days, the installment purchase shall cease and the retirement system shall refund to the employee the payment, payments or portion of a payment that does not represent a full month of service purchased.

(g) If payments have ceased under subsection (15)(e) or (f) of this section and the member later becomes a participating employee in one (1) of the three (3) systems administered by Kentucky Retirement Systems, the employee may complete the original installment purchase by lump sum or installment payments. If the employee elects to renew the installment purchase, the cost of the remaining service shall be recalculated in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection. Periodic payments may be ordered paid over a period of time not exceeding ten (10) years. Any periodic payment, upon becoming due under the terms of the judgment, shall constitute a separate judgment. Any judgment ordering any such payments shall specify the total amount awarded, the amount of each payment, the interval between payments and the number of payments to be paid under the judgment. Judgments paid pursuant to this section shall bear interest accruing from the date final judgment is entered, at the interest rate as specified in KRS 360.040. For good cause shown, the court may modify such judgment with respect to the amount of such payments and the number of payments, but the total amount of damages awarded by such judgment shall not be subject to modification in any event and periodic payments shall not be ordered paid over a period in excess of ten (10) years.

(2) A court may order periodic payment only upon finding that:

(a) Payment of the judgment is not totally covered by insurance; and

(b) Funds for the current budget year and other funds of the local government which lawfully may be utilized to pay judgments are insufficient to finance both the adopted budget of expenditures for the year and the payment of that portion of the judgment not covered by insurance.

Section 5. KRS 96.533 is amended to read as follows:

(1) This section and the applicable provisions of KRS 65.200 to 65.2005 [~~65.2006~~] shall apply to any director of any municipal utility board or commission created or operated pursuant to KRS Chapter 96.

(2) A director shall discharge his duties as a director, including his duties as a member of a committee:

(a) In good faith;

(b) On an informed basis; and

(c) In a manner he honestly believes to be in the best interest of the utility board or commission.

(3) A director shall discharge his duties on an informed basis if he makes inquiry, with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances, into the business and affairs of the utility board or commission, or into a particular action to be taken or decision to be made.

(4) In discharging his duties, a director may rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:

(a) One (1) or more officers or employees of the utility board or commission whom the director honestly believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

(b) Legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters the director honestly believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or

(c) A committee of the board of directors of which he is not a member if the director honestly believes the committee merits confidence.

(5) A director shall not be considered as acting in good faith if he has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (4) of this section unwarranted.

(6) Any action taken as a director, or any failure to take any action as a director, shall not be the basis for monetary damages or injunctive relief unless:

(a) The director has breached or failed to perform the duties of the director's office in compliance with this section; and

(b) In the case of an action for monetary damages, the breach or failure to perform constitutes willful misconduct or wanton or reckless disregard for human rights, safety or property.

(7) A person bringing an action for monetary damages under this section shall have the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence the provisions of subsection (6)(a) and (b) of this section, and the burden of proving that the breach or failure to perform was the legal cause of damages suffered.

(8) Nothing in this section shall eliminate or limit the liability of any director for any act or omission occurring prior to July 15, 1988.

Section 6. The following KRS section is repealed:

65.2006 Judgments affected.

Section 7. This Act shall be retroactive to July 15, 1988.

The Committee Amendment No. 1 to HB 889 is as follows:

Amend printed copy of HCS to HB 889 on page 7, after line 4 and before line 5, by adding the following new section:

(1) Unless otherwise prohibited by statute, any person may bring a legal action against a city, county, urban-county, special district, or any agency thereof to ensure compliance with any statute, ordinance, or administrative regulation.

(2) If the city, county, urban-county, special district, or agency is found to be not in compliance with the statute, ordinance or administrative regulation, it shall be liable for all reasonable and necessary costs and attorney's fees incurred by the plaintiff in the action."; and

On page 7, line 5, by renumbering "Section 6" as "Section 7"; and

On page 7, line 7, by renumbering "Section 7" as "Section 8".

SB 51. AN ACT relating to crimes and punishments.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 533 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) In any case where a fine or imprisonment, or both is an authorized penalty and where imprisonment is not required by the statute relating to the crime committed, a court may, as a form of conditional discharge, sentence the defendant to work at community service related projects subject to the following terms and conditions:

(a) As used in this section, community service related project means work for the state or an agency thereof, for a county, urban county government, city, special district, or an agency thereof or for a nonreligious sponsored nonprofit, charitable, or service organization. Work on a community service related project shall not confer a private benefit on a person except as may be incidental to the public benefit.

(b) Before a defendant may be sentenced to a particular community service related project, the director of the agency or unit of government, or his designee, shall approve or disapprove, in writing, the defendant's work for that agency or unit of government. If the designated person refuses to accept the defendant, he shall not be sentenced to work for that agency. If possible, another agency shall be found which will accept the defendant. If no agency accepts the defendant, he shall be resentenced to an appropriate sentence authorized by law.

(c) No defendant shall be sentenced to unduly hazardous work that would endanger the life or health of the defendant or others.

(d) Any defendant may, for valid medical reason, decline to work on community service related projects. In this case, he shall be sentenced to another penalty authorized by law.

(e) The order of the sentencing court shall specify the agency for which the defendant shall work, the manner in which the defendant shall be worked, and the terms and conditions thereof. The agency shall provide the court with reports as to the defendant's labor and compliance with the terms of the sentence.

(f) If insurance is available, a defendant may pay the cost of health and accident insurance for the time he is engaged in a community service related project. This subsection shall not apply when the defendant has such insurance, if the defendant does not desire to obtain insurance or if insurance is either unavailable or beyond the means of the defendant to pay. The Commonwealth, a unit of government, a special district, or agency for which a defendant engages in community service related work shall not be liable for accidents, or medical, health, or other costs incurred by the defendant.

(g) Participation in community services related projects shall not be deemed employment for any purpose, and the defendant shall not be deemed an employee or agent of the entity for which he performs the community service work.

(h) The defendant, not the Commonwealth, a unit of government, special district, or agency for which he engages in community service related work, shall be liable for all of his actions or omissions. The defendant shall sign a release to this effect.

(i) If a defendant fails, without good cause, to show for work and labor according to the conditions of his sentence, the agency for which he is working shall immediately report his failure to show for work or to work in accordance with the conditions of this sentence to the court.

(2) If the defendant fails to show for work, fails to labor in accordance with the conditions of his sentence, or is terminated from his community service related work for any reason, the court shall hold a hearing to determine the cause of the noncompliance and may, if the noncompliance is the fault of the defendant, resentence the defendant to a penalty or combination of penalties authorized for the commission of the offense. If the noncompliance is not caused by the defendant or the defendant has a legitimate reason therefor, the court may find another agency or unit of government for which the defendant may labor or, regardless of the reason for noncompliance, continue the defendant in the community service related work program.

(3) The length of time a defendant may be sentenced to a community service related work program shall not exceed:

(a) The length of the maximum imprisonment which is authorized for the commission of the offense, and in no case shall exceed five (5) years regardless of how many days the defendant works during that time.

(b) Ninety (90) days in the case of an offense for which a fine only or some penalty other than imprisonment is authorized.

A day shall mean a calendar day or combination thereof during which the defendant engages in eight (8) hours of labor at a community service related work program.

(4) While a prisoner may be sentenced to labor less time during a day, no prisoner shall be sentenced to work more than eight (8) hours in any one (1) day. While a prisoner may be sentenced to labor less time during a week, no prisoner shall be sentenced to work more than five (5) days during any one (1) week.

(5) The Administrative Office of the Courts shall, with the approval of the Supreme Court, print and distribute all forms necessary for the community service related work program authorized by this section.

(6) A court sentencing a defendant to a community service related work program shall, where possible, preserve the ordinary employment or educational programs in which the defendant is engaged by sentencing him to work at times other than those in which he is engaged in his regular employment or education.

Section 2. KRS 533.010 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who has been convicted of a crime and who has not been sentenced to death may be sentenced to probation or conditional discharge as provided in this chapter.

(2) Before imposition of a sentence of imprisonment the court shall consider the possibility of probation or conditional discharge. After due consideration of the nature and circumstances of the crime and the history, character and condition of the defendant, probation or conditional discharge should be granted, unless the court is of the opinion that imprisonment is necessary for protection of the public because:

(a) There is substantial risk that during a period of probation or conditional discharge the defendant will commit another crime; [~~or~~]

(b) The defendant is in need of correctional treatment that can be provided most effectively by his commitment to a correctional institution; or

(c) A disposition under this chapter will unduly depreciate the seriousness of the defendant's crime.

(3) When the court deems it in the best interest of the defendant and the public, the court may order the person to work at community service related projects under the terms and conditions specified in Section 1 of this Act. Work at community service related projects shall be considered as a form of conditional discharge.

Section 3. KRS 533.030 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The conditions of probation and conditional discharge shall be such as the court, in its discretion, deems reasonably necessary to insure that the defendant will lead a law-abiding life or to assist him to do so. The court shall provide as an explicit condition of every sentence to probation or conditional discharge that the defendant not commit another offense during the period for which the sentence remains subject to revocation.

(2) When imposing a sentence of probation or conditional discharge, the court may, in addition to any other reasonable condition, require that the defendant:

(a) Avoid injurious or vicious habits;

(b) Avoid persons or places of disreputable or harmful character;

(c) Work faithfully at suitable employment as far as possible;

(d) Undergo available medical or psychiatric treatment and remain in a specific institution as required for that purpose;

(e) Post a bond, without surety, conditioned on performance of any of the prescribed conditions;

(f) Support his dependents and meet other family responsibilities;

(g) Pay the cost of the proceeding as set by the court;

(h) Remain within a specified area;

(i) Report to the probation officer as directed;

(j) Permit the probation officer to visit him at his home or elsewhere; and

(k) Answer all reasonable inquiries by the probation officer and promptly notify the probation officer of any change in address or employment.

(3) When imposing a sentence of probation or conditional discharge in a case where a victim of a crime has suffered monetary damage as a result of the crime due to his property having been converted, stolen, or unlawfully obtained, or its value substantially decreased as a result of the crime, or where the victim suffered actual medical expenses, direct out-of-pocket losses, or loss of earning as a direct result of the crime, or if as a direct result of the crime the victim incurred medical expenses that were paid by the Cabinet for Human Resources, the Crime Victims Compensation Board, or any other governmental entity, the court shall order the defendant to make restitution in addition to any other penalty provided for the commission of the offense. Payment of restitution to the victim shall have priority over payment of restitution to any government agency. Restitution shall be ordered in the full amount of the damages, unless the damages exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or twice the amount of the gain from the commission of the offense, whichever is greater, in which case the higher of these two amounts shall be awarded. The court may, in lieu of ordering monetary restitution, order the defendant to make restitution by working for or on behalf of the victim. The court shall determine the number of hours of work necessary by applying the then prevailing federal minimum wage to the total amount of monetary damage caused by or incidental to the commission of the crime. The court may, with the consent of the agency, order the defendant to work as specified in Section 1 of this Act [~~for a public agency of the Commonwealth, a county, or a city for a period of time equal to that determined in the case of working for a victim~~]. Any work ordered pursuant to this section shall not be deemed employment for any purpose, nor shall the person performing the work be deemed an employe for any purpose. Where there is more than one (1) defendant or more than one (1) victim, restitution may be apportioned. Restitution shall be subject to the following additional terms and conditions:

(a) Restitution by payment may be ordered in a lump sum or in specified payments;

(b) Restitution by payment may be ordered paid through the circuit clerk who shall disburse the moneys as ordered by the court;

(c) Where property which is unlawfully in the possession of the defendant is in substantially undamaged condition from its condition at the time of the taking, return of the property shall be ordered in lieu of monetary restitution;

(d) Restitution by payment to governmental agencies shall be made through payments to and disbursement by the circuit clerk;

(e) The circuit clerk shall assess an additional fee of two percent (2%) to defray the administrative costs of collection of payments or property. This fee shall be paid by the defendant and shall enure to the general fund of the state treasury;

(f) When a defendant fails to make restitution ordered to be paid through the circuit clerk, the circuit clerk shall notify the court. The court shall hold a hearing to determine if the defendant is in contempt of the court or has violated the terms of his probation; and

(g) An order of restitution shall not preclude the owner of property or the victim who suffered personal physical or mental injury or out-of-pocket loss of earnings or support or other damages from proceeding in a civil action to recover damages from the defendant. A civil verdict shall be reduced by the amount paid under the criminal restitution order.

(4) When a defendant is sentenced to probation or conditional discharge, he shall be given a written statement explicitly setting forth the conditions under which he is being released.

(5) When imposing a sentence of probation or conditional discharge, the court, in addition to conditions imposed under this section, may require as a condition of the sentence that the defendant submit to a period of imprisonment in the county jail or to a period of home incarceration at whatever time or intervals, consecutive or nonconsecutive, the court shall determine. The time actually spent in confinement or home incarceration pursuant to this provision shall not exceed six (6) months or the maximum term of imprisonment assessed pursuant to KRS Chapter 532, whichever is the shorter. Time spent in confinement or home incarceration under this subsection shall be credited against the maximum term of imprisonment assessed for the defendant pursuant to KRS Chapter 532, if probation or conditional discharge is revoked and the defendant is sentenced to imprisonment. Any prohibitions against probation, shock probation, or conditional discharge under KRS 533.060(2), or 532.045 shall not apply to persons convicted of a misdemeanor or Class D felony and sentenced to a period of confinement or home incarceration under this section.

Section 4. The following KRS section is repealed:

431.140 Option of working prisoner at community service related project or at hard labor.

(v) "Purchase" includes taking by sale, lease, mortgage, security interest, pledge, gift, or any other voluntary transaction creating an interest in goods.

(w) "Sublease" means a lease of goods the right to possession and use of which was acquired by the lessor as a lessee under an existing lease.

(a) Statute of the United States;

(b) Certificate of title statute of this state;

(c) Certificate of title statute of another jurisdiction (Section 5 of this Act); or

(d) Consumer protection statute of this state.

(2) In case of conflict between the provisions of this article, other than Section 5, subsection (3) of Section 34, and subsection (3) of Section 35 of this Act, and any statute referred to in subsection (1), the provisions of that statute control.

(3) Failure to comply with any applicable statute has only the effect specified therein.

SECTION 5. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Subject to the provisions of subsection (3) of Section 34 and subsection (3) of Section 35 of this Act, with respect to goods covered by a certificate of title issued under a statute of this state or of another jurisdiction, compliance and the effect of compliance or noncompliance with a certificate of title statute are governed by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction issuing the certificate until the earlier of (a) surrender of the certificate, or (b) four months after the goods are removed from that jurisdiction and thereafter until a new certificate of title is issued by another jurisdiction.

SECTION 6. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If the law chosen by the parties to a consumer lease is that of a jurisdiction other than a jurisdiction in which the lessee resides at the time the lease agreement becomes enforceable or within thirty (30) days thereafter or in which the goods are to be used, the choice is not enforceable.

(2) If the judicial forum chosen by the parties to a consumer lease is a forum that would not otherwise have jurisdiction over the lessee, the choice is not enforceable.

SECTION 7. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Any claim or right arising out of an alleged default or breach of warranty may be discharged in whole or in part without consideration by a written waiver or renunciation signed and delivered by the aggrieved party.

SECTION 8. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If the court as a matter of law finds a lease contract or any clause of a lease contract to have been unconscionable at the time it was made, the court may refuse to enforce the lease contract, or it may enforce the remainder of the lease contract without the unconscionable clause, or it may so limit the application of any unconscionable clause as to avoid any unconscionable result

(2) With respect to a consumer lease, if the court as a matter of law finds that a lease contract or any clause of a lease contract has been induced by unconscionable conduct or that unconscionable conduct has occurred in the collection of a claim arising from a lease contract, the court may grant appropriate relief.

(3) Before making a finding of unconscionability under subsection (1) or (2), the court, on its own motion or that of party, shall afford the parties a reasonable opportunity to present evidence as to the setting, purpose, and effect of the lease contract or clause thereof, or of the conduct.

(4) In an action in which the lessee claims unconscionability with respect to a consumer lease:

(a) If the court finds unconscionability under subsection (1) or (2), the court shall award reasonable attorney's fees to the lessee.

(b) If the court does not find unconscionability, the court may award reasonable attorney's fees to the party against whom the claim is made.

(c) In determining attorney's fees, the amount of the recovery on behalf of the claimant under subsections (1) and (2) is not controlling.

SECTION 9. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A term providing that one party or his successor in interest may accelerate payment or performance or require collateral or additional collateral "at will" or "when he deems himself insecure" or in words of similar import must be construed to mean that he has power to do so only if he in good faith believes that the prospect of payment or performance is impaired.

(2) With respect to a consumer lease, the burden of establishing good faith under subsection (1) is on the party who exercised the power; otherwise the burden of establishing lack of good faith is on the party against whom the power has been exercised.

PART 2. FORMATION AND CONSTRUCTION OF LEASE CONTRACT

SECTION 10. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A lease contract is not enforceable by way of action or defense unless:

(a) The total payments to be made under the lease contract, excluding payments for options to renew or buy, are less than five hundred dollars ($500); or

(b) There is a writing, signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by that party's authorized agent, sufficient to indicate that a lease contract has been made between the parties and to describe the goods leased and the lease term.

(2) Any description of leased goods or of the lease term is sufficient and satisfies subsection (1)(b), whether or not it is specific, if it reasonably identifies what is described.

(3) A writing is not insufficient because it omits or incorrectly states a term agreed upon, but the lease contract is not enforceable under subsection (1)(b) beyond the lease term and the quantity of goods shown in the writing.

(4) A lease contract that does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (1), but which is valid in other respects, is enforceable:

(a) If the goods are to be specially manufactured or obtained for the lessee and are not suitable for lease or sale to others in the ordinary course of the lessor's business, and the lessor, before notice of repudiation is received and under circumstances that reasonably indicate that the goods are for the lessee, has made either a substantial beginning of their manufacture or commitments for their procurement;

(b) If the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in that party's pleading, testimony or otherwise in court that lease contract was made, but the lease contract is not enforceable under this provision beyond the quantity of goods admitted; or

(c) With respect to goods that have been received and accepted by the lessee.

(5) The lease term under a lease contract referred to in subsection (4) is:

(a) If there is a writing signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by that party's authorized agent specifying the lease term, the term so specified;

(b) If the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in that party's pleading, testimony, or otherwise in court a lease term, the term so admitted; or

(c) A reasonable lease term.

SECTION 11. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Terms with respect to which the confirmatory memoranda of the parties agree or which are otherwise set forth in a writing intended by the parties as a final expression of their agreement with respect to such terms as are included therein may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior agreement or of a contemporaneous oral agreement but may be explained or supplemented:

(a) By course of dealing or usage of trade or by course of performance; and

(b) By evidence of consistent additional terms unless the court finds the writing to have been intended also as a complete and exclusive statement of the terms of the agreement.

SECTION 12. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The affixing of a seal to a writing evidencing a lease contract or an offer to enter into a lease contract does not render the writing a sealed instrument and the law with respect to sealed instruments does not apply to the lease contract or offer.

SECTION 13. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A lease contract may be made in any manner sufficient to show agreement, including conduct by both parties which recognizes the existence of a lease contract.

(2) An agreement sufficient to constitute a lease contract may be found although the moment of its making is undetermined.

(3) Although one or more terms are left open, a lease contract does not fail for indefiniteness if the parties have intended to make a lease contract and there is a reasonably certain basis for giving an appropriate remedy.

SECTION 14. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

An offer by a merchant to lease goods to or from another person in a signed writing that by its terms gives assurance it will be held open is not revocable, for lack of consideration, during the time stated or, if no time is stated, for a reasonable time, but in no event may the period of irrevocability exceed three (3) months. Any such term of assurance on a form supplied by the offeree must be separately signed by the offeror.

SECTION 15. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Unless otherwise unambiguously indicated by the language or circumstances, an offer to make a lease contract must be construed as inviting acceptance in any manner and by any medium reasonable in the circumstances.

(2) If the beginning of a requested performance is a reasonable mode of acceptance, an offeror who is not notified of acceptance within a reasonable time may treat the offer as having lapsed before acceptance.

SECTION 16. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If a lease contract involves repeated occasions for performance by either party with knowledge of the nature of the performance and opportunity for objection to it by the other, any course of performance accepted or acquiesced in without objection is relevant to determine the meaning of the lease agreement.

(2) The express terms of a lease agreement and any course of performance, as well as any course of dealing and usage of trade, must be construed whenever reasonable as consistent with each other; but if that construction is unreasonable, express terms control course of performance, course of performance controls both course of dealing and usage of trade, and course of dealing controls usage of trade.

(3) Subject to the provisions of Section 17 of this Act on modification and waiver, course of performance is relevant to show a waiver or modification of any term inconsistent with the course of performance.

SECTION 17. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) An agreement modifying a lease contract needs no consideration to be binding.

(2) A signed lease agreement that excludes modification or rescission except by a signed writing may not be otherwise modified or rescinded, but, except as between merchants, such a requirement on a form supplied by a merchant must be separately signed by the other party.

(3) Although an attempt at modification or rescission does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (2), it may operate as a waiver.

(4) A party who has made a waiver affecting an executory portion of a lease contract may retract the waiver by reasonable notification received by the other party that strict performance will be required of any term waived, unless the retraction would be unjust in view of a material change of position in reliance on the waiver.

SECTION 18. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The benefit of the supplier's promises to the lessor under the supply contract and of all warranties, whether express or implied, under the supply contract, extends to the lessee to the extent of the lessee's leasehold interest under a finance lease related to the supply contract, but subject to the terms of the supply contract and all of the supplier's defenses or claims arising therefrom.

(2) The extension of the benefit of the supplier's promises and warranties to the lessee (subsection (1) of Section 18 of this Act) does not:

(a) Modify the rights and obligations of the parties to the supply contract, whether arising therefrom or otherwise, or

(b) Impose any duty or liability under the supply contract on the lessee.

(3) Any modification or rescission of the supply contract by the supplier and the lessor is effective against the lessee unless, prior to the modification or rescission, the supplier has received notice that the lessee has entered into a finance lease related to the supply contract. If the supply contract is modified or rescinded after the lessee enters the finance lease, the lessee has a cause of action against the lessor, and against the supplier if the supplier has notice of the lessee's entering the finance lease when the supply contract is modified or rescinded. The lessee's recovery from such action shall put the lessee in as good a position as if the modification or rescission had not occurred.

SECTION 19. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Express warranties by the lessor are created as follows:

(a) Any affirmation of fact or promise made by the lessor to the lessee which relates to the goods and becomes part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the goods will conform to the affirmation or promise.

(b) Any description of the goods which is made part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the goods will conform to the description.

(c) Any sample or model that is made part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the whole of the goods will conform to the sample or model.

(2) It is not necessary to the creation of an express warranty that the lessor use formal words, such as "warrant" or "guarantee," or that the lessor have a specific intention to make a warranty, but an affirmation merely of the value of the goods or a statement purporting to be merely the lessor's opinion or commendation of the goods does not create a warranty.

SECTION 20. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) There is in a lease contract a warranty that for the lease term no person holds a claim to or interest in the goods that arose from an act or omission of the lessor, other than a claim by way of infringement or the like, which will interfere with the lessee's enjoyment of its leasehold interest.

(2) Except in a finance lease there is in a lease contract by a lessor who is a merchant regularly dealing in goods of the kind a warranty that the goods are delivered free of the rightful claim of any person by way of infringement or the like.

(3) A lessee who furnishes specifications to a lessor or a supplier shall hold the lessor and the supplier harmless against any claim by way of infringement or the like that arises out of compliance with the specifications.

SECTION 21. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except in a finance lease, a warranty that the goods will be merchantable is implied in a lease contract if the lessor is a merchant with respect to goods of that kind.

(2) Goods to be merchantable must be at least such as:

(a) Pass without objection in the trade under the description in the lease agreement;

(b) In the case of fungible goods, are of fair average quality within the description;

(c) Are fit for the ordinary purposes for which goods of that type are used;

(d) Run, within the variation permitted by the lease agreement, of even kind, quality, and quantity within each unit and among all units involved;

(e) Are adequately contained, packaged, and labeled as the lease agreement may require; and

(f) Conform to any promises or affirmations of fact made on the container or label.

(3) Other implied warranties may arise from course of dealing or usage of trade.

SECTION 22. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Except in a finance lease, if the lessor at the time the lease contract is made has reason to know of any particular purpose for which the goods are required and that the lessee is relying on the lessor's skill or judgment to select or furnish suitable goods, there is in the lease contract an implied warranty that the goods will be fit for that purpose.

SECTION 23. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Words or conduct relevant to the creation of an express warranty and words or conduct tending to negate or limit a warranty must be construed wherever reasonable as consistent with each other; but, subject to the provisions of Section 11 of this Act on parole or extrinsic evidence, negation or limitation is inoperative to the extent that the construction is unreasonable.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), to exclude or modify the implied warranty of merchantability or any part of it the language must mention "merchantability", be by a writing, and be conspicuous. Subject to subsection (3), to exclude or modify any implied warranty of fitness the exclusion must be by a writing and be conspicuous. Language to exclude all implied warranties of fitness is sufficient if it is in writing, is conspicuous and states, for example, "There is no warranty that the goods will be fit for a particular purpose".

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), but subject to subsection (4):

(a) Unless the circumstances indicate otherwise, all implied warranties are excluded by expressions like "as is," or "with all faults" or by other language that in common understanding calls the lessee's attention to the exclusion of warranties and makes plain that there is no implied warranty, if in writing and conspicuous;

(b) If the lessee before entering into the lease contract has examined the goods or the sample or model as fully as desired or has refused to examine the goods, there is no implied warranty with regard to defects that an examination ought in the circumstances to have revealed; and

(c) An implied warranty may also be excluded or modified by course of dealing, course of performance, or usage of trade.

(4) To exclude or modify a warranty against interference or against infringement (Section 20 of this Act) or any part of it, the language must be specific, be by a writing, and be conspicuous, unless the circumstances, including course of performance, course of dealing, or usage of trade, give the lessee reason to know that the goods are being leased subject to a claim or interest of any person.

SECTION 24. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Warranties, whether express or implied, must be construed as consistent with each other and as cumulative, but if that construction is unreasonable, the intention of the parties determines which warranty is dominant. In ascertaining that intention the following rules apply:

(a) Exact or technical specifications displace an inconsistent sample or model or general language of description.

(b) A sample from an existing bulk displaces inconsistent general language of description.

(c) Express warranties displace inconsistent implied warranties other than an implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose.

SECTION 25. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A warranty to or for the benefit of a lessee under this article, whether express or implied, extends to any natural person who is in the family or household of the lessee or who is a guest in the lessee's home if it is reasonable to expect that such person may use, consume, or be affected by the goods and who is injured in person by breach of the warranty. This section does not displace principles of law and equity that extend a warranty to or for the benefit of a lessee to other persons. The operation of this section may not be excluded, modified, or limited, but an exclusion, modification, or limitation of the warranty, including any with respect to rights and remedies, effective against the lessee is also effective against any beneficiary designated under this section.

SECTION 26. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Identification of goods as goods to which a lease contract refers may be made at any time and in any manner explicitly agreed to by the parties. In the absence of explicit agreement, identification occurs:

(a) When the lease contract is made if the lease contract is for a lease of goods that are existing and identified;

(b) When the goods are shipped, marked, or otherwise designated by the lessor as goods to which the lease contract refers, if the lease contract is for a lease of goods that are not existing and identified; or

(c) When the young are conceived, if the lease contract is for a lease of unborn young of animals.

SECTION 27. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A lessee obtains an insurable interest when existing goods are identified to the lease contract even though the goods identified are nonconforming and the lessee has an option to reject them.

(2) If a lessee has an insurable interest only by reason of the lessor's identification of the goods, the lessor, until default or insolvency or notification to the lessee that identification is final, may substitute other goods for those identified.

(3) Notwithstanding a lessee's insurable interest under subsections (1) and (2), the lessor retains an insurable interest until an option to buy has been exercised by the lessee and risk of loss has passed to the lessee.

(4) Nothing in this section impairs any insurable interest recognized under any other statute or rule of law.

(5) The parties by agreement may determine that one or more parties have an obligation to obtain and pay for insurance covering the goods and by agreement may determine the beneficiary of the proceeds of the insurance.

SECTION 28. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except in the case of a finance lease, risk of loss is retained by the lessor and does not pass to the lessee. In the case of a finance lease, risk of loss passes to the lessee.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this article on the effect of default on risk of loss (Section 29 of this Act), if risk of loss is to pass to the lessee and the time of passage is not stated, the following rules apply:

(a) If the lease contract requires or authorizes the goods to be shipped by carrier:

1. And it does not require delivery at a particular destination, the risk of loss passes to the lessee when the goods are duly delivered to the carrier; but

2. If it does require delivery at a particular destination and the goods are there duly tendered while in the possession of the carrier, the risk of loss passes to the lessee when the goods are there duly so tendered as to enable the lessee to take delivery.

(b) If the goods are held by a bailee to be delivered without being moved, the risk of loss passes to the lessee on acknowledgement by the bailee of the lessee's right to possession of the goods.

(c) In any case not within subsection (a) or (b), the risk of loss passes to the lessee on the lessee's receipt of the goods if the lessor, or, in the case of a finance lease, the supplier, is a merchant; otherwise the risk passes to the lessee on tender of delivery.

SECTION 29. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Where risk of loss is to pass to the lessee and the time of passage is not stated:

(a) If a tender or delivery of goods so fails to conform to the lease contract as to give a right of rejection, the risk of their loss remains with the lessor, or, in the case of a finance lease, the supplier, until cure or acceptance.

(b) If the lessee rightfully revokes acceptance, he, to the extent of any deficiency in his effective insurance coverage, may treat the risk of loss as having remained with the lessor from the beginning.

(2) Whether or not risk of loss is to pass to the lessee, if the lessee as to conforming goods already identified to a lease contract repudiates or is otherwise in default under the lease contract, the lessor, or, in the case of a finance lease, the supplier, to the extent of any deficiency in his effective insurance coverage may treat the risk of loss as resting on the lessee for a commercially reasonable time.

SECTION 30. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If a lease contract requires goods identified when the lease contract is made, and the goods suffer casualty without fault of the lessee, the lessor or the supplier before delivery, or the goods suffer casualty before risk of loss passes to the lessee pursuant to the lease agreement or Section 28 of this Act, then:

(a) If the loss is total, the lease contract is avoided; and

(b) If the loss is partial or the goods have so deteriorated as to no longer conform to the lease contract, the lessee may nevertheless demand inspection and at his option either treat the lease contract as avoided or, except in a finance lease that is not a consumer lease, accept the goods with due allowance from the rent payable for the balance of the lease term for the deterioration or the deficiency in quantity but without further right against the lessor.

PART 3. EFFECT OF LEASE CONTRACT

SECTION 31. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Except as otherwise provided in this article, a lease contract is effective and enforceable according to its terms between the parties, against purchasers of the goods and against creditors of the parties.

SECTION 32. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Except as otherwise provided in this article, each provision of this article applies whether the lessor or a third party has title to the goods, and whether the lessor, the lessee, or a third party has possession of the goods, notwithstanding any statute or rule of law that possession or the absence of possession is fraudulent.

SECTION 33. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Any interest of a party under a lease contract and the lessor's residual interest in the goods may be transferred unless:

(a) The transfer is voluntary and the lease contract prohibits the transfer; or

(b) The transfer materially changes the duty of or materially increases the burden or risk imposed on the other party to the lease contract, and within a reasonable time after notice of the transfer the other party demands that the transferee comply with subsection (2) and the transferee fails to comply.

(2) Within a reasonable time after demand pursuant to subsection (1)(b), the transferee shall:

(a) Cure or provide adequate assurance that he will promptly cure any default other than one arising from the transfer;

(b) Compensate or provide adequate assurance that he will promptly compensate the other party to the lease contract and any other person holding an interest in the lease contract, except the party whose interest is being transferred, for any loss to that party resulting from the transfer;

(c) Provide adequate assurance of future due performance under the lease contract; and

(3) Demand pursuant to subsection (1)(b) is without prejudice to the other party's rights against the transferee and the party whose interest is transferred.

(4) An assignment of "the lease" or of "all my rights under the lease" or an assignment in similar general terms is a transfer of rights, and unless the language or the circumstances, as in an assignment for security, indicate the contrary, the assignment is a delegation of duties by the assignor to the assignee and acceptance by the assignee constitutes a promise by him to perform those duties. This promise is enforceable by either the assignor or the other party to the lease contract.

(5) Unless otherwise agreed by the lessor and the lessee, no delegation of performance relieves the assignor as against the other party of any duty to perform or any liability for default.

(6) A right to damages for default with respect to the whole lease contract or a right arising out of the assignor's due performance of his entire obligation can be assigned despite agreement otherwise.

(7) To prohibit the transfer of an interest of a party under a lease contract, the language of prohibition must be specific, by a writing, and conspicuous.

SECTION 34. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (33) of this Act, a subsequent lessee from a lessor of goods under an existing lease contract obtains, to the extent of the leasehold interest transferred, the leasehold interest in the goods that the lessor had or had power to transfer, and except as provided in subsection (2) of this section and subsection (4) of Section 74 of this Act, takes subject to the existing lease contract. A lessor with voidable title has power to transfer a good leasehold interest to a good faith subsequent lessee for value, but only to the extent set forth in the preceding sentence. When goods have been delivered under a transaction of purchase, the lessor has that power even though:

(a) The lessor's transferer was deceived as to the identity of the lessor;

(b) The delivery was in exchange for a check which is later dishonored;

(c) It was agreed that the transaction was to be a "cash sale"; or

(d) The delivery was procured through fraud punishable as larcenous under the criminal law.

(2) A subsequent lessee in the ordinary course of business from a lessor who is a merchant dealing in goods of that kind to whom the goods were entrusted by the existing lessee before the interest of the subsequent lessee became enforceable against the lessor obtains, to the extent of the leasehold interest transferred, all of the lessor's and the existing lessee's rights to the goods, and takes free of the existing lease contract.

(3) A subsequent lessee from the lessor of goods that are subject to an existing lease contract and are covered by a certificate of title issued under a statute of this state or of another jurisdiction takes no greater rights than those provided both by this section and by the certificate of title statute.

SECTION 35. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Subject to the provisions of Section 33 of this Act, a buyer or sublessee from the lessee of goods under an existing lease contract obtains, to the extent of the interest transferred, the leasehold interest in the goods that the lessee had or had power to transfer, and except as provided in subsection (2) of this section and subsection (4) of Section 58 of this Act, takes subject to the existing lease contract. A lessee with a voidable leasehold interest has power to transfer a good leasehold interest to a good faith buyer for value or a good faith sublessee for value, but only to the extent set forth in the preceding sentence. When goods have been delivered under a transaction of lease, the lessee has that power even though:

(a) The lessor was deceived as to the identity of the lessee;

(b) The delivery was in exchange for a check which is later dishonored; or

(c) The delivery was procured through fraud punishable as larcenous under the criminal law.

(2) A buyer in the ordinary course of business or a sublessee in the ordinary course of business from a lessee who is a merchant dealing in goods of that kind to whom the goods were entrusted by the lessor obtains, to the extent of the interest transferred, all of the lessor's and lessee's rights to the goods, and takes free of the existing lease contract.

(3) A buyer or sublessee from the lessee of goods that are subject to an existing lease contract and are covered by a certificate of title issued under a statute of this state or of another jurisdiction takes no greater rights than those provided both by this section and by the certificate of title statute.

SECTION 36. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If a person in the ordinary course of his business furnishes services or materials with respect to goods subject to a lease contract, a lien upon those goods in the possession of that person given by statute or rule of law for those materials or services takes priority over any interest of the lessor or lessee under the lease contract or this article unless the lien is created by statute and the statute provides otherwise or unless the lien is created by rule of law and the rule of law provides otherwise.

SECTION 37. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in Section 36 of this Act, a creditor of a lessee takes subject to the lease contract.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (3) and (4) of this section and in Sections 36 and 38 of this Act, a creditor of a lessor takes subject to the lease contract:

(a) Unless the creditor holds a lien that attached to the goods before the lease contract became enforceable; or

(b) Unless the creditor holds a security interest in the goods that under the Article on Secured Transactions (Article 9) would have priority over any other security interest in the goods perfected by a filing covering the goods and made at the time the lease contract became enforceable, whether or not any other security interest existed.

(3) A lessee in the ordinary course of business takes the leasehold interest free of a security interest in the goods created by the lessor even though the security interest is perfected and the lessee knows of its existence.

(4) A lessee other than a lessee in the ordinary course of business takes the leasehold interest free of a security interest to the extent that it secures future advances made after the secured party acquires knowledge of the lease or more than forty-five (45) days after the lease contract becomes enforceable, whichever first occurs, unless the future advances are made pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the lease and before the expiration of the 45-day period.

SECTION 38. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A creditor of a lessor in possession of goods subject to a lease contract may treat the lease contract as void if, as against the creditor, retention of possession by the lessor is fraudulent under any statute or rule of law, but retention of possession in good faith and current course of trade by the lessor for a commercially reasonable time after the lease contract becomes enforceable is not fraudulent.

(2) Nothing in this article impairs the rights of creditors of a lessor if the lease contract:

(a) Becomes enforceable, not in current course of trade but in satisfaction of or as security for a pre-existing claim for money, security, or the like; and

(b) Is made under circumstances which under any statute or rule of law apart from this article would constitute the transaction a fraudulent transfer or voidable preference.

(3) A creditor of a seller may treat a sale or an identification of goods to a contract for sale as void if, as against the creditor, retention of possession by the seller is fraudulent under any statute or rule of law, but retention of possession of the goods pursuant to a lease contract entered into by the seller as lessee and the buyer as lessor in connection with the sale or identification of the goods is not fraudulent if the buyer bought for value and in good faith.

SECTION 39. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) In this section:

(a) Goods are "fixtures" when they become so related to particular real estate that an interest in them arises under real estate law;

(b) A "fixture filing" is the filing, in the office where a mortgage on the real estate would be recorded or registered, of a financing statement concerning goods that are or are to become fixtures and conforming to the requirements of KRS 355.9-402(5);

(c) A lease is a "purchase money lease" unless the lessee has possession or use of the goods or the right to possession or use of the goods before the lease agreement is enforceable;

(d) A mortgage is a "construction mortgage" to the extent it secures an obligation incurred for the construction of an improvement on land including the acquisition cost of the land, if the recorded writing so indicates; and

(e) "Encumbrance" includes real estate mortgages and other liens on real estate and all other rights in real estate that are not ownership interests.

(2) Under this article a lease may be of goods that are fixtures or may continue in goods that become fixtures, but no lease exists under this article of ordinary building materials incorporated into an improvement on land.

(3) This article does not prevent creation of a lease of fixtures pursuant to real estate law.

(4) The perfected interest of a lessor of fixtures has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate if:

(a) The lease is a purchase money lease, the conflicting interest of the encumbrancer or owner arises before the goods become fixtures, the interest of the lessor is perfected by a fixture filing before the goods become fixtures or within ten (10) days thereafter, and the lessee has an interest of record in the real estate or is in possession of the real estate; or

(b) The interest of the lessor is perfected by a fixture filing before the interest of the encumbrancer or owner is of record, the lessor's interest has priority over any conflicting interest of a predecessor in title of the encumbrancer or owner, and the lessee has an interest of record in the real estate or is in possession of the real estate.

(5) The interest of a lessor of fixtures, whether or not perfected, has priority over the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate if:

(a) The fixtures are readily removable factory or office machines, readily removable equipment that is not primarily used or leased for use in the operation of the real estate, or readily removable replacements of domestic appliances that are goods subject to a consumer lease, and before the goods become fixtures the lease contract is enforceable; or

(b) The conflicting interest is a lien on the real estate obtained by legal or equitable proceedings after the lease contract is enforceable; or

(c) The encumbrancer or owner has consented in writing to the lease or has disclaimed an interest in the goods as fixtures; or

(d) The lessee has a right to remove the goods as against the encumbrancer or owner. If the lessee's right to remove terminates, the priority of the interest of the lessor continues for a reasonable time.

(6) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of subsection (4) but otherwise subject to subsections (4) and (5), the interest of a lessor of fixtures is subordinate to the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer of the real estate under a construction mortgage recorded before the goods become fixtures if the goods become fixtures before the completion of the construction. To the extent given to refinance a construction mortgage, the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer of the real estate under a mortgage has this priority to the same extent as the encumbrancer of the real estate under the construction mortgage.

(7) In cases not within the preceding subsections, priority between the interest of a lessor of fixtures and the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate who is not the lessee is determined by the priority rules governing conflicting interests in real estate.

(8) If the interest of a lessor has priority over all conflicting interests of all owners and encumbrancers of the real estate, the lessor or the lessee may:

(a) On default, expiration, termination, or cancellation of the lease agreement by the other party but subject to the provisions of the lease agreement and this article; or remove the goods from the real estate, free and clear of all conflicting interests of all owners and encumbrancers of the real estate, but he must reimburse any encumbrancer or owner of the real estate who is not the lessee and who has not otherwise agreed for the cost of repair of any physical injury, but not for any diminution in value of the real estate caused by the absence of the goods removed or by any necessity of replacing them. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the party seeking removal gives adequate security for the performance of this obligation.

(9) Even though the lease agreement does not create a security interest, the interest of a lessor of fixtures is perfected by filing a financing statement as a fixture filing for leased goods that are or are to become fixtures in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Article on Secured Transactions (Article 9).

SECTION 40. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Goods are "accessions" when they are installed in or affixed to other goods.

(2) The interest of a lessor or a lessee under a lease contract entered into before the goods became accessions is superior to all interests in the whole except as stated in subsection (4).

(3) The interest of a lessor or a lessee under a lease contract entered into at the time or after the goods became accessions is superior to all subsequently acquired interests in the whole except as stated in subsection (4) but is subordinate to interests in the whole existing at the time the lease contract was made unless the holders of such interests in the whole have in writing consented to the lease or disclaimed an interest in the goods as part of the whole.

(4) The interest of a lessor or a lessee under a lease contract described in subsection (2) or (3) is subordinate to the interest of:

(a) A buyer in the ordinary course of business or a lessee in the ordinary course of business of any interest in the whole acquired after the goods became accessions; or

(b) A creditor with a security interest in the whole perfected before the lease contract was made to the extent that the creditor makes subsequent advances without knowledge of the lease contract.

(5) When under subsections (2) or (3) and (4) a lessor or a lessee of accessions holds an interest that is superior to all interests in the whole, the lessor or the lessee may:

(a) On default, expiration, termination, or cancellation of the lease contract by the other party but subject to the provisions of the lease contract and this article; or remove the goods from the whole, free and clear of all interests in the whole, but he must reimburse any holder of an interest in the whole who is not the lessee and who has not otherwise agreed for the cost of repair of any physical injury but not for any diminution in value of the whole caused by the absence of the goods removed or by any necessity for replacing them. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the party seeking removal gives adequate security for the performance of this obligation.

(b) If necessary to enforce his other rights and remedies under this article;

PART 4. PERFORMANCE OF LEASE CONTRACT: REPUDIATED, SUBSTITUTED AND EXCUSED

SECTION 41. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A lease contract imposes an obligation on each party that the other's expectation of receiving due performance will not be impaired.

(2) If reasonable grounds for insecurity arise with respect to the performance of either party, the insecure party may demand in writing adequate assurance of due performance. Until the insecure party receives that assurance, if commercially reasonable the insecure party may suspend any performance for which he has not already received the agreed return.

(3) A repudiation of the lease contract occurs if assurance of due performance adequate under the circumstances of the particular case is not provided to the insecure party within a reasonable time, not to exceed thirty (30) days after receipt of a demand by the other party.

(4) Between merchants, the reasonableness of grounds for insecurity and the adequacy of any assurance offered must be determined according to commercial standards.

(5) Acceptance of any nonconforming delivery or payment does not prejudice the aggrieved party's right to demand adequate assurance of future performance.

SECTION 42. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If either party repudiates a lease contract with respect to a performance not yet due under the lease contract, the loss of which performance will substantially impair the value of the lease contract to the other, the aggrieved party may:

(1) For a commercially reasonable time, await retraction of repudiation and performance by the repudiating party;

(2) Make demand pursuant to Section 41 of this Act and await assurance of future performance adequate under the circumstances of the particular case; or

(3) Resort to any right or remedy upon default under the lease contract or this article, even though the aggrieved party has notified the repudiating party that the aggrieved party would await the repudiating party's performance and assurance and has urged retraction. In addition, whether or not the aggrieved party is pursuing one of the foregoing remedies, the aggrieved party may suspend performance or, if the aggrieved party is the lessor, proceed in accordance with the provisions of this article on the lessor's right to identify goods to the lease contract notwithstanding default or to salvage unfinished goods (Section 71 of this Act).

SECTION 43. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Until the repudiating party's next performance is due, the repudiating party can retract the repudiation unless, since the repudiation, the aggrieved party has cancelled the lease contract or materially changed the aggrieved party's position or otherwise indicated that the aggrieved party considers the repudiation final.

(2) Retraction may be by any method that clearly indicates to the aggrieved party that the repudiating party intends to perform under the lease contract and includes any assurance demanded under Section 41 of this Act.

(3) Retraction reinstates a repudiating party's rights under a lease contract with due excuse and allowance to the aggrieved party for any delay occasioned by the repudiation.

SECTION 44. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If without fault of the lessee, the lessor and the supplier, the agreed berthing, loading, or unloading facilities fail or the agreed type of carrier becomes unavailable or the agreed manner of delivery otherwise becomes commercially impracticable, but a commercially reasonable substitute is available, the substitute performance must be tendered and accepted.

(2) If the agreed means or manner of payment fails because of domestic or foreign governmental regulation:

(a) The lessor may withhold or stop delivery or cause the supplier to withhold or stop delivery unless the lessee provides a means or manner of payment that is commercially a substantial equivalent; and

(b) If delivery has already been taken, payment by the means or in the manner provided by the regulation discharges the lessee's obligation unless the regulation is discriminatory, oppressive, or predatory.

SECTION 45. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Subject to Section 44 of this Act on substituted performance, the following rules apply:

(1) Delay in delivery or nondelivery in whole or in part by a lessor or a supplier who complies with subsections (2) and (3) is not a default under the lease contract if performance as agreed has been made impracticable by the occurrence of a contingency the nonoccurrence of which was a basic assumption on which the lease contract was made or by compliance in good faith with any applicable foreign or domestic governmental regulation or order, whether or not the regulation or order later proves to be invalid.

(2) If the causes mentioned in subsection (1) affect only part of the lessor's or the supplier's capacity to perform, he shall allocate production and deliveries among his customers but at his option may include regular customers not then under contract for sale or lease as well as his own requirements for further manufacture. He may so allocate in any manner that is fair and reasonable.

(3) The lessor seasonably shall notify the lessee and in the case of a finance lease the supplier seasonably shall notify the lessor and the lessee, if known, that there will be delay or nondelivery and, if allocation is required under subsection (2), of the estimated quota thus made available for the lessee.

SECTION 46. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If the lessee receives notification of a material or indefinite delay or an allocation justified under Section 45 of this Act, the lessee may by written notification to the lessor as to any goods involved, and with respect to all of the goods if under an installment lease contract the value of the whole lease contract is substantially impaired (Section 57 of this Act):

(a) Terminate the lease contract (subsection (2) of Section 52 of this Act); or

(b) Except in a finance lease that is not a consumer lease, modify the lease contract by accepting the available quota in substitution, with due allowance from the rent payable for the balance of the lease term for the deficiency but without further right against the lessor.

(2) If, after receipt of a notification from the lessor under Section 45 of this Act, the lessee fails so to modify the lease agreement within a reasonable time not exceeding thirty (30) days, the lease contract lapses with respect to any deliveries affected.

SECTION 47. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) In the case of a finance lease that is not a consumer lease, the lessee's promises under the lease contract become irrevocable and independent upon the lessee's acceptance of the goods.

(2) A promise that has become irrevocable and independent under subsection (1):

(a) Is effective and enforceable between the parties, and by or against third parties including assignees of the parties; and

(b) Is not subject to cancellation, termination, modification, repudiation, excuse, or substitution without the consent of the party to whom the promise runs.

(2) If the lessor or the lessee is in default under the lease contract, the party seeking enforcement has rights and remedies as provided in this article and, except as limited by this article, as provided in the lease agreement.

(3) If the lessor or the lessee is in default under the lease contract, the party seeking enforcement may reduce the party's claim to judgment, or otherwise enforce the lease contract by self-help or any available judicial procedure or nonjudicial procedure, including administrative proceeding, arbitration, or the like, in accordance with this article.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this article or the lease agreement, the rights and remedies referred to in subsections (2) and (3) are cumulative.

(5) If the lease agreement covers both real property and goods, the party seeking enforcement may proceed under this part as to the goods, or under other applicable law as to both the real property and the goods in accordance with his rights and remedies in respect of the real property, in which case this part does not apply.

SECTION 49. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Except as otherwise provided in this article or the lease agreement, the lessor or lessee in default under the lease contract is not entitled to notice of default or notice of enforcement from the other party to the lease agreement.

SECTION 50. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this article, the lease agreement may include rights and remedies for default in addition to or in substitution for those provided in this article and may limit or alter the measure of damages recoverable under this article.

(2) Resort to a remedy provided under this article or in the lease agreement is optional unless the remedy is expressly agreed to be exclusive. If circumstances cause an exclusive or limited remedy to fail of its essential purpose, or provision for an exclusive remedy is unconscionable, remedy may be had as provided in this article.

(3) Consequential damages may be liquidated under Section 51 of this Act, or may otherwise be limited, altered, or excluded unless the limitation, alteration, or exclusion is unconscionable. Limitation of consequential damages for injury to the person in the case of consumer goods is prima facie unconscionable but limitation of damages where the loss is commercial is not.

(4) Rights and remedies on default by the lessor or the lessee with respect to any obligation or promise collateral or ancillary to the lease contract are not impaired by this article.

SECTION 51. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Damages payable by either party for default, or any other act or omission, including indemnity for loss or diminution of anticipated tax benefits or loss or damage to lessor's residual interest, may be liquidated in the lease agreement but only at an amount or by a formula that is reasonable in light of the then anticipated harm caused by the default or other act or omission.

(2) If the lease agreement provides for liquidation of damages, and such provision does not comply with subsection (1), or such provision is an exclusive or limited remedy that circumstances cause to fail of its essential purpose, remedy may be had as provided in this article.

(3) If the lessor justifiably withholds or stops delivery of goods because of the lessee's default or insolvency (Section 72 or 73 of this Act), the lessee is entitled to restitution of any amount by which the sum of his payments exceeds:

(a) The amount to which the lessor is entitled by virtue of terms liquidating the lessor's damages in accordance with subsection (1); or

(b) In the absence of those terms, twenty percent (20%) of the then present value of the total rent the lessee was obligated to pay for the balance of the lease term, or, in the case of a consumer lease, the lesser of such amount or five hundred dollars ($500).

(4) A lessee's right to restitution under subsection (3) is subject to offset to the extent the lessor establishes:

(2) On termination of the lease contract, all obligations that are still executory on both sides are discharged but any right based on prior default or performance survives.

(3) Unless the contrary intention clearly appears, expressions of "cancellation," "rescission," or the like of the lease contract may not be construed as a renunciation or discharge of any claim in damages for an antecedent default.

(4) Rights and remedies for material misrepresentation or fraud include all rights and remedies available under this article for default.

(5) Neither rescission nor a claim for rescission of the lease contract nor rejection or return of the goods may bar or be deemed inconsistent with a claim for damages or other right or remedy.

SECTION 53. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) An action for default under a lease contract, including breach of warranty or indemnity, must be commenced within four (4) years after the cause of action accrued. By the original lease contract the parties may reduce the period of limitation to not less than one (1) year.

(2) A cause of action for default accrues when the act or omission on which the default or breach of warranty is based is or should have been discovered by the aggrieved party, or when the default occurs, whichever is later. A cause of action for indemnity accrues when the act or omission on which the claim for indemnity is based is or should have been discovered by the indemnified party, whichever is later.

(3) If an action commenced within the time limited by subsection (1) is so terminated as to leave available a remedy by another action for the same default or breach of warranty or indemnity, the other action may be commenced after the expiration of the time limited and within six (6) months after the termination of the first action unless the termination resulted from voluntary discontinuance or from dismissal for failure or neglect to prosecute.

(4) This section does not alter the law on tolling of the statute of limitations nor does it apply to causes of action that have accrued before this article becomes effective.

SECTION 54. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(2) If evidence of rent for the use of the goods concerned for a lease term identical to the remaining lease term of the original lease agreement and prevailing at the times or places described in this article is not readily available, the rent prevailing within any reasonable time before or after the time described or at any other place or for a different lease term which in commercial judgment or under usage of trade would serve as a reasonable substitute for the one described may be used, making any proper allowance for the difference, including the cost of transporting the goods to or from the other place.

(3) Evidence of a relevant rent prevailing at a time or place or for a lease term other than the one described in this article offered by one party is not admissible unless and until he has given the other party notice the court finds sufficient to prevent unfair surprise.

(4) If the prevailing rent or value of any goods regularly leased in any established market is in issue, reports in official publications or trade journals or in newspapers or periodicals of general circulation published as the reports of that market are admissible in evidence. The circumstances of the preparation of the report may be shown to affect its weight but not its admissibility.

B. DEFAULT BY LESSOR

SECTION 55. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If a lessor fails to deliver the goods in conformity to the lease contract (Section 56 of this Act) or repudiates the lease contract (Section 42 of this Act), or a lessee rightfully rejects the goods (Section 56 of this Act) or justifiably revokes acceptance of the goods (Section 64 of this Act), then with respect to any goods involved, and with respect to all of the goods if under an installment lease contract the value of the whole lease contract is substantially impaired (Section 57 of this Act), the lessor is in default under the lease contract and the lessee may:

(a) Cancel the lease contract (subsection (1) of Section 52 of this Act);

(b) Recover so much of the rent and security as has been paid, but in the case of an installment lease contract the recovery is that which is just under the circumstances;

(c) Cover and recover damages as to all goods affected whether or not they have been identified to the lease contract (Sections 65 and 67 of this Act), or recover damages for nondelivery (Sections 66 and 67 of this Act).

(2) If a lessor fails to deliver the goods in conformity to the lease contract or repudiates the lease contract, the lessee may also:

(a) If the goods have been identified, recover them (Section 69 of this Act); or

(b) In a proper case, obtain specific performance or replevy the goods (Section 68 of this Act).

(3) If a lessor is otherwise in default under a lease contract, the lessee may exercise the rights and remedies provided in the lease contract and this article.

(4) If a lessor has breached a warranty, whether express or implied, the lessee may recover damages (subsection (4) of Section 66 of this Act).

(5) On rightful rejection or justifiable revocation of acceptance, a lessee has a security interest in goods in the lessee's possession or control for any rent and security that has been paid and any expenses reasonably incurred in their inspection, receipt, transportation, and care and custody and may hold those goods and dispose of them in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, subject to the provisions of (subsection (5) of Section 44 of this Act).

(6) Subject to the provisions of Section 47 of this Act, a lessee, on notifying the lessor of the lessee's intention to do so, may deduct all or any part of the damages resulting from any default under the lease contract from any part of the rent still due under the same lease contract.

SECTION 56. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Subject to the provisions of Section 57 of this Act on default in installment lease contracts, if the goods or the tender or delivery fail in any respect to conform to the lease contract, the lessee may reject or accept the goods or accept any commercial unit or units and reject the rest of the goods.

(2) Rejection of goods is ineffective unless it is within a reasonable time after tender or delivery of the goods and the lessee seasonably notifies the lessor.

SECTION 57. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Under an installment lease contract a lessee may reject any delivery that is nonconforming if the nonconformity substantially impairs the value of that delivery and cannot be cured or the nonconformity is a defect in the required documents; but if the nonconformity does not fall within subsection (2) and the lessor or the supplier gives adequate assurance of its cure, the lessee must accept that delivery.

(2) Whenever nonconformity or default with respect to one (1) or more deliveries substantially impairs the value of the installment lease contract as a whole there is a default with respect to the whole. But, the aggrieved party reinstates the installment lease contract as a whole if the aggrieved party accepts a nonconforming delivery without seasonably notifying of cancellation or brings an action with respect only to past deliveries or demands performance as to future deliveries.

SECTION 58. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Subject to any security interest of a lessee (subsection (5) of Section 55 of this Act), if a lessor or a supplier has no agent or place of business at the market of rejection, a merchant lessee, after rejection of goods in his possession or control, shall follow any reasonable instructions received from the lessor or the supplier with respect to the goods. In the absence of those instructions, a merchant lessee shall make reasonable efforts to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the goods for the lessor's account if they threaten to decline in value speedily. Instructions are not reasonable if on demand indemnity for expenses is not forthcoming.

(2) If a merchant lessee (subsection (1)) or any other lessee (Section 59 of this Act) disposes of goods, he is entitled to reimbursement either from the lessor or the supplier or out of the proceeds for reasonable expenses of caring for and disposing of the goods and, if the expenses include no disposition commission, to such commission as is usual in the trade, or if there is none, to a reasonable sum not exceeding ten percent (10%) of the gross proceeds.

(3) In complying with this section or Section 59 of this Act, the lessee is held only to good faith. Good faith conduct hereunder is neither acceptance or conversion nor the basis of an action for damages.

(4) A purchaser who purchases in good faith from a lessee pursuant to this section or Section 59 of this Act takes the goods free of any rights of the lessor and the supplier even though the lessee fails to comply with one (1) or more of the requirements of this article.

SECTION 59. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided with respect to goods that threaten to decline in value speedily (Section 58 of this Act) and subject to any security interest of a lessee (subsection (5) of Section 55 of this Act):

(a) The lessee, after rejection of goods in the lessee's possession, shall hold them with reasonable care at the lessor's or the supplier's disposition for a reasonable time after the lessee's seasonable notification of rejection;

(b) If the lessor or the supplier gives no instructions within a reasonable time after notification of rejection, the lessee may store the rejected goods for the lessor's or the supplier's account or ship them to the lessor or the supplier or dispose of them for the lessor's or the supplier's account with reimbursement in the manner provided in Section 58 of this Act; but

(c) The lessee has no further obligations with regard to goods rightfully rejected.

(2) Action by the lessee pursuant to subsection (1) is not acceptance or conversion.

SECTION 60. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If any tender or delivery by the lessor or the supplier is rejected because nonconforming and the time for performance has not yet expired, the lessor or the supplier may seasonably notify the lessee of the lessor's or the supplier's intention to cure and may then make a conforming delivery within the time provided in the lease contract.

(2) If the lessee rejects a nonconforming tender that the lessor or the supplier had reasonable grounds to believe would be acceptable with or without money allowance, the lessor or the supplier may have a further reasonable time to substitute a conforming tender if he seasonably notifies the lessee.

SECTION 61. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) In rejecting goods, a lessee's failure to state a particular defect that is ascertainable by reasonable inspection precludes the lessee from relying on the defect to justify rejection or to establish default:

(a) If, stated seasonably, the lessor or the supplier could have cured it (Section 60 of this Act); or

(b) Between merchants if the lessor or the supplier after rejection has made a request in writing for a full and final written statement of all defects on which the lessee proposes to rely.

(2) A lessee's failure to reserve rights when paying rent or other consideration against documents precludes recovering of the payment for defects apparent on the face of the documents.

SECTION 62. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Acceptance of goods occurs after the lessee has had a reasonable opportunity to inspect the goods; and

(a) The lessee signifies or acts with respect to the goods in a manner that signifies to the lessor or the supplier that the goods are conforming or that the lessee will take or retain them in spite of their nonconformity; or

(b) The lessee fails to make an effective rejection of the goods (subsection (2) of Section 56 of this Act).

(2) Acceptance of a part of any commercial unit is acceptance of that entire unit.

SECTION 63. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) – A lessee must pay rent for any goods accepted in accordance with the lease contract, with due allowance for goods rightfully rejected or not delivered.

(2) A lessee's acceptance of goods precludes rejection of the goods accepted. In the case of a finance lease, if made with knowledge of a nonconformity, acceptance cannot be revoked because of it. In any other case, if made with knowledge of a nonconformity, acceptance cannot be revoked because of it unless the acceptance was on the reasonable assumption that the nonconformity would be seasonably cured. Acceptance does not of itself impair any other remedy provided by this article or the lease agreement for nonconformity.

(3) If a tender has been accepted:

(a) Within a reasonable time after the lessee discovers or should have discovered any default, the lessee shall notify the lessor and the supplier, or be barred from any remedy;

(b) Except in the case of a consumer lease, within a reasonable time after the lessee received notice of litigation for infringement or the like (Section 20 of this Act) the lessee shall notify the lessor or be barred from any remedy over for liability established by the litigation; and

(c) The burden is on the lessee to establish any default.

(4) If a lessee is sued for breach of a warranty or other obligation for which a lessor or a supplier is answerable over:

(a) The lessee may give the lessor or the supplier written notice of the litigation. If the notice states that the lessor or the supplier may come in and defend and that if the lessor or the supplier does not do so he will be bound in any action against him by the lessee by any determination of fact common to the two litigations, then unless the lessor or the supplier after seasonable receipt of the notice does come in and defend he is so bound.

(b) The lessor or the supplier may demand in writing that the lessee turn over control of the litigation including settlement if the claim is one for infringement or the like (Section 20 of this Act) or else be barred from any remedy over. If the demand states that the lessor or the supplier agrees to bear all expense and to satisfy any adverse judgment, then unless the lessee after seasonable receipt of the demand does turn over control the lessee is so barred.

(5) The provisions of subsections (3) and (4) apply to any obligation of a lessee to hold the lessor or the supplier harmless against infringement or the like (Section 20 of this Act).

SECTION 64. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A lessee may revoke acceptance of a lot or commercial unit whose nonconformity substantially impairs its value to the lessee if he has accepted it:

(a) Except in the case of a finance lease, on the reasonable assumption that its nonconformity would be cured and it has not been seasonably cured; or

(b) Without discovery of the nonconformity if the lessee's acceptance was reasonably induced either by the lessor's assurances or, except in the case of a finance lease, by the difficulty of discovery before acceptance.

(2) Revocation of acceptance must occur within a reasonable time after the lessee discovers or should have discovered the ground for it and before any substantial change in condition of the goods which is not caused by the nonconformity. Revocation is not effective until the lessee notifies the lessor.

(3) A lessee who so revokes has the same rights and duties with regard to the goods involved as if the lessee had rejected them.

SECTION 65. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) After default by a lessor under the lease contract (subsection (1) of Section 55 of this Act), the lessee may cover by making any purchase or lease of or contract to purchase or lease goods in substitution for those due from the lessor.

(2) Except as otherwise provided with respect to damages liquidated in the lease agreement (Section 51 of this Act) or determined by agreement of the parties (KRS 355.1-102(3)), if a lessee's cover is by lease agreement substantially similar to the original lease agreement and the lease agreement is made in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, the lessee may recover from the lessor as damages:

(a) The present value, as of the date of default, of the difference between the total rent for the lease term of the new lease agreement and the total rent for the remaining lease term of the original lease agreement; and

(b) Any incidental or consequential damages less expenses saved in consequence of the lesser's default.

(3) If a lessee's cover is by lease agreement that for any reason does not qualify for treatment under subsection (2) or is by purchase or otherwise, the lessee may recover from the lessor as if the lessee had elected not to cover and Section 66 of this Act governs.

SECTION 66. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided with respect to damages liquidated in the lease agreement (Section 51 of this Act) or determined by agreement of the parties (KRS 355.1-102(3)), if a lessee elects not to cover or a lessee elects to cover and the cover is by lease agreement that for any reason does not qualify for treatment under subsection (2) of Section 65 of this Act, or is by purchase or otherwise, the measure of damages for non-delivery or repudiation by the lessor or for rejection or revocation of acceptance by the lessee is the present value as of the date of the default of the difference between the then market rent and the original rent, computed for the remaining lease term of the original lease agreement together with incidental and consequential damages, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessor's default.

(2) Market rent is to be determined as of the place for tender or, in cases of rejection after arrival or revocation of acceptance, as of the place of arrival.

(3) If the lessee has accepted goods and given notification (subsection (3) of Section 63 of this Act), the measure of damages for non-conforming tender or delivery by a lessor is the loss resulting in the ordinary course of events from the lessor's default as determined in any manner that is reasonable together with incidental and consequential damages, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessor's default.

(4) The measure of damages for breach of warranty is the present value at the time and place of acceptance of the difference between the value of the use of the goods accepted and the value if they had been as warranted for the lease term, unless special circumstances show proximate damages of a different amount, together with incidental and consequential damages, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessor's default or breach of warranty.

SECTION 67. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Incidental damages resulting from a lessor's default include expenses reasonably incurred in inspection, receipt, transportation, and care and custody of goods rightfully rejected or goods the acceptance of which is justifiably revoked, any commercially reasonable charges, expenses or commissions in connection with effecting cover, and any other reasonable expense incident to the default.

(2) Consequential damages resulting from a lessor's default include:

(a) Any loss resulting from general or particular requirements and needs of which the lessor at the time of contracting had reason to know and which could not reasonably be prevented by cover or otherwise; and

(b) Injury to person or property proximately resulting from any breach of warranty.

SECTION 68. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Specific performance may be decreed if the goods are unique or in other proper circumstances.

(2) A decree for specific performance may include any terms and conditions as to payment of the rent, damages, or other relief that the court deems just.

(3) A lessee has a right of replevin, detinue, sequestration, claim and delivery, writ of possession or the like for goods identified to the lease contract if after reasonable effort the lessee is unable to effect cover for those goods or the circumstances reasonably indicate that the effort will be unavailing.

SECTION 69. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Subject to subsection (2) and even though the goods have not been shipped, a lessee who has paid a part or all of the rent and security for goods identified to a lease contract (Section 26 of this Act)

on making and keeping good a tender of any unpaid portion of the rent and security due under the lease contract may recover the goods identified from the lessor if the lessor becomes insolvent within ten (10) days after receipt of the first installment of rent and security.

(2) A lessee acquires the right to recover goods identified to a lease contract only if they conform to the lease contract.

C. DEFAULT BY LESSEE

SECTION 70. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If a lessee wrongfully rejects or revokes acceptance of goods or fails to make a payment when due or repudiates with respect to a part or the whole, then, with respect to any goods involved, and with respect to all of the goods if under an installment lease contract the value of the whole lease contract is substantially impaired (Section 57 of this Act), the lessee is in default under the lease contract and the lessor may:

(a) Cancel the lease contract (subsection (1) of Section 52 of this Act);

(b) Proceed respecting goods not identified to the lease contract (Section 71 of this Act);

(c) Withhold delivery of the goods and take possession of goods previously delivered (Section 72 of this Act);

(d) Stop delivery of the goods by any bailee (Section 73 of this Act);

(e) Dispose of the goods and recover damages (Section 74 of this Act), or retain the goods and recover damages (Section 75 of this Act), or in a proper case recover rent (Section 76 of this Act).

(2) If a lessee is otherwise in default under a lease contract, the lessor may exercise the rights and remedies provided in the lease contract and this article.

SECTION 71. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A lessor aggrieved under subsection (1) of Section 70 of this Act may:

(a) Identify to the lease contract conforming goods not already identified if at the time the lessor learned of the default they were in the lessor's or the supplier's possession or control; and

(b) Dispose of goods (subsection (1) of Section 74 of this Act) that demonstrably have been intended for the particular lease contract even though those goods are unfinished.

(2) If the goods are unfinished, in the exercise of reasonable commercial judgment for the purposes of avoiding loss and of effective realization, an aggrieved lessor or the supplier may either complete manufacture and wholly identify the goods to the lease contract or cease manufacture and lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of the goods for scrap or salvage value or proceed in any other reasonable manner.

SECTION 72. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If a lessor discovers the lessee to be insolvent, the lessor may refuse to deliver the goods.

(2) The lessor has on default by the lessee under the lease contract the right to take possession of the goods. If the lease contract so provides, the lessor may require the lessee to assemble the goods and make them available to the lessor at a place to be designated by the lessor which is reasonably convenient to both parties. Without removal, the lessor may render unusable any goods employed in trade or business, and may dispose of goods on the lessee's premises (Section 74 of this Act).

(3) The lessor may proceed under subsection (2) without judicial process if that can be done without breach of the peace or the lessor may proceed by action.

SECTION 73. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A lessor may stop delivery of goods in the possession of a carrier or other bailee if the lessor discovers the lessee to be insolvent and may stop delivery of carload, truckload, planeload, or larger shipments of express or freight if the lessee repudiates or fails to make a payment due before delivery, whether for rent, security or otherwise under the lease contract, or for any other reason the lessor has a right to withhold or take possession of the goods.

(2) In pursuing its remedies under subsection (1), the lessor may stop delivery until:

(a) Receipt of the goods by the lessee;

(b) Acknowledgment to the lessee by any bailee of the goods, except a carrier, that the bailee holds the goods for the lessee; or

(c) Such an acknowledgment to the lessee by a carrier via reshipment or as warehouseman.

(3) (a) To stop delivery, a lessor shall so notify as to enable the bailee by reasonable diligence to prevent delivery of the goods.

(b) After notification, the bailee shall hold and deliver the goods according to the directions of the lessor, but the lessor is liable to the bailee for any ensuing charges or damages.

(c) A carrier who has issued a nonnegotiable bill of lading is not obliged to obey a notification to stop received from a person other than the consignor.

SECTION 74. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) After a default by a lessee under the lease contract (subsection (1) of Section 70 of this Act) or after the lessor refuses to deliver or takes possession of goods (Section 72 or 73 of this Act), the lessor may dispose of the goods concerned or the undelivered balance thereof by lease, sale or otherwise.

(2) Except as otherwise provided with respect to damages liquidated in the lease agreement (Section 51 of this Act) or determined by agreement of the parties (KRS 355.1-102(3)), if the disposition is by lease agreement substantially similar to the original lease agreement and the lease agreement is made in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, the lessor may recover from the lessee as damages:

(a) Accrued and unpaid rent as of the date of default;

(b) The present value as of the date of default of the difference between the total rent for the remaining lease term of the original lease agreement and the total rent for the lease term of the new lease agreement; and

(c) Any incidental damages allowed under Section 77 of this Act, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessee's default.

(3) If the lessor's disposition is by lease agreement that for any reason does not qualify for treatment under subsection (2), or is by sale or otherwise, the lessor may recover from the lessee as if the lessor had elected not to dispose of the goods and Section 75 of this Act governs.

(4) A subsequent buyer or lessee who buys or leases from the lessor in good faith for value as a result of a disposition under this section takes the goods free of the original lease contract and any rights of the original lessee even though the lessor fails to comply with one or more of the requirements of this article.

(5) The lessor is not accountable to the lessee for any profit made on any disposition. A lessee who has rightfully rejected or justifiably revoked acceptance shall account to the lessor for any excess over the amount of the lessee's security interest (subsection (5) of Section 55 of this Act).

SECTION 75. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided with respect to damages liquidated in the lease agreement (Section 51 of this Act) or determined by agreement of the parties (KRS 355.1-102(3)), if a lessor elects to retain the goods or a lessor elects to dispose of the goods and disposition is by lease agreement that for any reason does not qualify for treatment under subsection (2) of Section 74 of this Act, or is by sale or otherwise, the lessor may recover from the lessee as damages for non-acceptance or repudiation by the lessee:

(a) Accrued and unpaid rent as of the date of default;

(b) The present value as of the date of default of the difference between the total rent for the remaining lease term of the original lease agreement and the market rent at the time and place for tender computed for the same lease term; and

(c) Any incidental damages allowed under Section 77 of this Act, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessee's default.

(2) If the measure of damages provided in subsection (1) is inadequate to put a lessor in as good a position as performance would have, the measure of damages is the profit, including reasonable overhead, the lessor would have made from full performance by the lessee, together with any incidental damages allowed under Section 77 of this Act, due allowance for costs reasonably incurred and due credit for payments or proceeds of disposition.

SECTION 76. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) After default by the lessee under the lease contract (subsection (1) of Section 70 of this Act), if the lessor complies with subsection (2), the lessor may recover from the lessee as damages:

(a) For goods accepted by the lessee and for conforming goods lost or damaged within a commercially reasonable time after risk of loss passes to the lessee (Section 28 of this Act):

1. Accrued and unpaid rent as of the date of default;

2. The present value as of the date of default of the rent for the remaining lease term of the lease agreement; and

3. Any incidental damages allowed under Section 77 of this Act, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessee's default; and

(b) For goods identified to the lease contract if the lessor is unable after reasonable effort to dispose of them at a reasonable price or the circumstances reasonably indicate that effort will be unavailing:

1. Accrued and unpaid rent as of the date of default;

2. The present value as of the date of default of the rent for the remaining lease term of the lease agreement; and

3. Any incidental damages allowed under Section 77 of this Act, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessee's default.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3), the lessor shall hold for the lessee for the remaining lease term of the lease agreement any goods that have been identified to the lease contract and are in the lessor's control.

(3) The lessor may dispose of the goods at any time before collection of the judgment for damages obtained pursuant to subsection (1). If the disposition is before the end of the remaining lease term of the lease agreement, the lessor's recovery against the lessee for damages will be governed by Section 74 or Section 75 of this Act.

(4) Payment of the judgment for damages obtained pursuant to subsection (1) entitles the lessee to use and possession of the goods not then disposed of for the remaining lease term of the lease agreement.

(5) After a lessee has wrongfully rejected or revoked acceptance of goods, has failed to pay rent then due, or has repudiated (Section 42 of the Act), a lessor who is held not entitled to rent under this section must nevertheless be awarded damages for non-acceptance under Sections 74 and 75 of this Act.

SECTION 77. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Incidental damages to an aggrieved lessor include any commercially reasonable charges, expenses, or commissions incurred in stopping delivery, in the transportation, care and custody of goods after the lessee's default, in connection with return or disposition of the goods, or otherwise resulting from the default.

SECTION 78. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 2A OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If a third party so deals with goods that have been identified to a lease contract as to cause actionable injury to a party to the lease contract (a) the lessor has a right of action against the third party, and (b) the lessee also has a right of action against the third party if the lessee:

1. Has a security interest in the goods;

2. Has an insurable interest in the goods; or

3. Bears the risk of loss under the lease contract or has since the injury assumed that risk as against the lessor and the goods have been converted or destroyed.

(2) If at the time of the injury the party plaintiff did not bear the risk of loss as against the other party to the lease contract and there is no arrangement between them for disposition of the recovery, his suit or settlement, subject to his own interest, is as a fiduciary for the other party to the lease contract.

(3) Either party with the consent of the other may sue for the benefit of whom it may concern.

Section 79. KRS 355.1-105 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided hereafter in this section, when a transaction bears a reasonable relation to this state and also to another state or nation the parties may agree that the law either of this state or of such other state or nation shall govern their rights and duties. Failing such agreement this chapter applies to transactions bearing an appropriate relation to this state.

(2) Where one of the following provisions of this chapter specifies the applicable law, that provision governs and a contrary agreement is effective only to the extent permitted by the law (including the conflict of the laws rules) so specified:

Rights of creditors against sold goods. KRS 355.2-402.

Applicability of the Article on Leases. Sections 5 and 6 of this Act.

Applicability of the Article on Bank Deposits and Collections. KRS 355.4-102.

Bulk transfers subject to the Article on Bulk Transfers. KRS 355.6-102.

Applicability of the Article on Investment Securities. KRS 355.8-106.

Perfection provisions of the Article on Secured Transactions. KRS 355.9-103.

Section 80. KRS 355.1-201 is amended to read as follows:

Subject to additional definitions contained in the subsequent Articles of this chapter which are applicable to specific Articles or Parts thereof, and unless the context otherwise requires, in this chapter:

(1) "Action" in the sense of a judicial proceeding includes recoupment, counterclaim, set-off, suit in equity and any other proceedings in which rights are determined.

(2) "Aggrieved party" means a party entitled to resort to a remedy.

(3) "Agreement" means the bargain of the parties in fact as found in their language or by implication from other circumstances including course of dealing or usage of trade or course of performance as provided in this chapter (KRS 355.1-205 and 355.2-208). Whether an agreement has legal consequences is determined by the provisions of this chapter, if applicable; otherwise by the law of contracts (KRS 355.1-103). (Compare "Contract.")

(4) "Bank" means any person engaged in the business of banking.

(5) "Bearer" means the person in possession of an instrument, document of title, or certificated security payable to bearer or indorsed in blank.

(6) "Bill of lading" means a document evidencing the receipt of goods for shipment issued by a person engaged in the business of transporting or forwarding goods, and includes an airbill. "Airbill" means a document serving for air transportation as a bill of lading does for marine or rail transportation, and includes an air consignment note or air waybill.

(7) "Branch" includes a separately incorporated foreign branch of a bank.

(8) "Burden of establishing" a fact means the burden of persuading the triers of fact that the existence of the fact is more probable than its non-existence.

(9) "Buyer in ordinary course of business" means a person who in good faith and without knowledge that the sale to him is in violation of the ownership rights or security interest of a third party in the goods buys in ordinary course from a person in the business of selling goods of that kind but does not include a pawnbroker. All persons who sell minerals or the like (including oil and gas) at wellhead or minehead shall be deemed to be persons in the business of selling goods of that kind. "Buying" may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit and includes receiving goods or documents of title under a pre-existing contract for sale but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.

(10) "Conspicuous": A term or clause is conspicuous when it is so written that a reasonable person against whom it is to operate ought to have noticed it. A printed heading in capitals (as: NONNEGOTIABLE BILL OF LADING) is conspicuous. Language in the body of a form is "conspicuous" if it is in larger or other contrasting type or color. But in a telegram any stated term is "conspicuous." Whether a term or clause is "conspicuous" or not is for decision by the court.

(11) "Contract" means the total legal obligation which results from the parties' agreement as affected by this chapter and any other applicable rules of law. (Compare "Agreement.")

(12) "Creditor" includes a general creditor, a secured creditor, a lien creditor and any representative of creditors, including an assignee for the benefit of creditors, a trustee in bankruptcy, a receiver in equity and an executor or administrator of an insolvent debtor's or assignor's estate.

(13) "Defendant" includes a person in the position of defendant in a cross-action or counterclaim.

(14) "Delivery" with respect to instruments, documents of title, chattel paper or certificated securities means voluntary transfer of possession.

(15) "Document of title" includes bill of lading, dock warrant, dock receipt, warehouse receipt or order for the delivery of goods, and also any other document which in the regular course of business or financing is treated as adequately evidencing that the person in possession of it is entitled to receive, hold and dispose of the document and the goods it covers. To be a document of title a document must purport to be issued by or addressed to a bailee and purport to cover goods in the bailee's possession which are either identified or are fungible portions of an identified mass.

(16) "Fault" means wrongful act, omission or breach.

(17) "Fungible" with respect to goods or securities means goods or securities of which any unit is, by nature or usage of trade, the equivalent of any other like unit. Goods which are not fungible shall be deemed fungible for the purposes of this chapter to the extent that under a particular agreement or document unlike units are treated as equivalents.

(18) "Genuine" means free of forgery or counterfeiting.

(19) "Good faith" means honesty in fact in the conduct or transaction concerned.

(20) "Holder" means a person who is in possession of a document of title or an instrument or a certificated investment security drawn, issued or indorsed to him or to his order or to bearer or in blank.

(21) To "honor" is to pay or to accept and pay, or where a credit so engages to purchase or discount a draft complying with the terms of the credit.

(22) "Insolvency proceedings" includes any assignment for the benefit of creditors or other proceedings intended to liquidate or rehabilitate the estate of the person involved.

(23) A person is "insolvent" who either has ceased to pay his debts in the ordinary course of business or cannot pay his debts as they become due or is insolvent within the meaning of the federal bankruptcy law.

(24) "Money" means a medium of exchange authorized or adopted by a domestic or foreign government as a part of its currency.

(25) A person has "notice" of a fact when

(a) He has actual knowledge of it; or

(b) He has received a notice or notification of it; or

(c) From all the facts and circumstances known to him at the time in question he has reason to know that it exists.

A person "knows" or has "knowledge" of a fact when he has actual knowledge of it. "Discover" or "learn" or a word or phrase of similar import refers to knowledge rather than to reason to know. The time and circumstances under which a notice or notification may cease to be effective are not determined by this chapter.

(26) A person "notifies" or "gives" a notice or notification to another by taking such steps as may be reasonably required to inform the other in ordinary course whether or not such other actually comes to know of it. A person "receives" a notice or notification when

(a) It comes to his attention; or

(b) It is duly delivered at the place of business through which the contract was made or at any other place held out by him as the place for receipt of such communications.

(27) Notice, knowledge or a notice or notification received by an organization is effective for a particular transaction from the time when it is brought to the attention of the individual conducting that transaction, and in any event from the time when it would have been brought to his attention if the organization had exercised due diligence. An organization exercises due diligence if it maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the person conducting the transaction and there is reasonable compliance with the routines. Due diligence does not require an individual acting for the organization to communicate information unless such communication is part of his regular duties or unless he has reason to know of the transaction and that the transaction would be materially affected by the information.

(28) "Organization" includes a corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two (2) or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(29) "Party," as distinct from "third party," means a person who has engaged in a transaction or made an agreement within this chapter.

(30) "Person" includes an individual or an organization (See KRS 355.1-102).

(31) "Presumption" or "presumed" means that the trier of fact must find the existence of the fact presumed unless and until evidence is introduced which would support a finding of its nonexistence.

(32) "Purchase" includes taking by sale, discount, negotiation, mortgage, pledge, lien, issue or re-issue, gift or any other voluntary transaction creating an interest in property.

(33) "Purchaser" means a person who takes by purchase.

(34) "Remedy" means any remedial right to which an aggrieved party is entitled with or without resort to tribunal.

(35) "Representative" includes an agent, an officer of a corporation or association, and a trustee, executor or administrator of an estate, or any other person empowered to act for another.

(36) "Rights" includes remedies.

(37) "Security interest" means an interest in personal property or fixtures which secures payment or performance of an obligation. The retention or reservation of title by a seller of goods notwithstanding shipment or delivery to the buyer (KRS 355.2-401) is limited in effect to a reservation of a "security interest." The term also includes any interest of a buyer of accounts or chattel paper which is subject to Article 9. The special property interest of a buyer of goods on identification of those [~~such~~] goods to a contract for sale under KRS 355.2-401 is not a "security interest," but a buyer may also acquire a "security interest" by complying with Article 9. Unless a [~~lease or~~] consignment is intended as security, reservation of title thereunder is not a "security interest", but a consignment [~~is~~] in any event is subject to the provisions on consignment sales (KRS 355.2-326). [~~Whether a lease is intended as security is to be determined by the facts of each case; however, (a) the inclusion of an option to purchase does not of itself make the lease one intended for security, and (b) an agreement that upon compliance with the terms of the lease the lessee shall become or has the option to become the owner of the property for no additional consideration or for a nominal consideration does make the lease one intended for security.~~]

Whether a transaction creates a lease or security interest is determined by the facts of each case; however, a transaction creates a security interest if the consideration the lessee is to pay the lessor for the right to possession and use of the goods is an obligation for the term of the lease not subject to termination by the lessee; and

(a) The original term of the lease is equal to or greater than the remaining economic life of the goods;

(b) The lessee is bound to renew the lease for the remaining economic life of the goods or is bound to become the owner of the goods;

(c) The lessee has an option to renew the lease for the remaining economic life of the goods for no

additional consideration or nominal additional consideration upon compliance with the lease agreement; or

WHEREAS, in previous years shifting of projects has diminished the confidence of the General Assembly and the public that roads will be constructed in a timely fashion; and

WHEREAS, the first major step in assuring road projects are planned and built in a conscientious manner is the development of a preconstruction plan; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly in adoption of this resolution is committed to work with the Department of Highways to develop a balanced and workable construction and preconstruction plan in future years;

Section 2. That the Secretary of Transportation shall work in conjunction with the General Assembly to move each of the projects in Section 1 of this Resolution as expeditiously as possible while ensuring that in the next biennium both plans are balanced with respect to revenue which may be available to the Department of Highways and the other statutory provisions which govern this highway construction plan.

Section 3. That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Governor of Kentucky and the Secretary of the Kentucky Transportation Cabinet.

The Committee on Banking and Insurance reported HB 867 with the expression of opinion that the same should pass. Read at length for the first time and ordered placed in the Consent Calendar.

HB 867, AN ACT relating to insurance and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 12 OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

It shall be an unfair or deceptive trade practice for a group or blanket health insurance policy to exclude coverage for a health condition based solely on the fact that the health condition is work-related unless the claimant is eligible for benefits under any workers' compensation act or similar law.

Section 2. Whereas, group or blanket health insurers persist in attempting to exclude coverage for work-related injuries which are not covered by workers' compensation, an emergency is declared to exist, and this Act shall become effective upon its passage and approval by the Governor.

The Committee on Banking and Insurance reported HB 900, SB 242 and HB 860 with Committee Amendment attached thereto, with the expression of opinion that the same should pass. Read at length for the first time and ordered placed in the Calendar.

HB 900, AN ACT relating to group insurance.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 18A IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Eligible employee" means a state employee as defined in KRS 18A.205 for purposes of life insurance and KRS 18A.225 and 18A.228 for purposes of health insurance; and

(b) "Governmental unit" means any department, division, administrative body, or separate payroll area of state government and any district board of education.

(2) (a) Any governmental unit may form its employees into a group for insurance purposes separate from the state master contract for health or life insurance procured in accordance with KRS Chapter 18A and shall notify the Department of Personnel of its intention to form a separate group. The Department of Personnel shall reimburse the governmental unit for life or health insurance or both in an amount equal to the state's premium contribution under the current state master contract or the premium cost for single coverage under the governmental unit's contract, whichever is less, for each eligible employee.

(b) Any governmental unit forming its own group shall notify the Department of Personnel of its decision by June 1 of the year in which the option is taken and shall be eligible for reimbursement for insurance premiums beginning October 1 of that same year. A governmental unit opting to separate from the state master contract as set out in this Act shall provide a policy with coverage, including the applicable deductibles, at least equal to the coverage provided by the state contract.

Section 2. KRS 161.158 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the provisions of Section 1 of this Act, each district board of education may form its employees into a group or groups or recognize existing groups for the purpose of obtaining the advantages of group life, disability, medical, and dental insurance or any group insurance plans to aid its employees, as long as the employees continue to be employed by the board of education. Medical and dental group insurance plans obtained under authority of this section may include insurance benefits for the families of the insured group or groups of employees. Any district board of education may pay all or part of the premium on the policies, and may deduct from the salaries of the employees that part of the premium which is to be paid by them and may contract with the insurer to provide the above benefits.

(2) Each district board of education shall adopt policies or regulations which will provide for deductions from salaries of its employees or groups of employees whenever a request is presented to the board by said employees or groups thereof. Such deductions shall be made from salaries earned in at least eight different pay periods, and shall be remitted to the appropriate organization or association as specified by the employees. The deductions may be made for, but are not limited to, membership dues, tax sheltered annuities and group insurance premiums. With the exception of membership dues, the board shall not be required to make more than one remittance, of amounts deducted during a pay period, for a separate type of deduction. Health insurance, life insurance, and tax-sheltered annuities shall be interpreted as separate types of deductions. When amounts have been correctly deducted and remitted by the board, said board shall bear no further responsibility or liability for subsequent transaction.

(3) Payments and deductions made by the board of education under the authority of this section are presumed to be for services rendered and for the benefit of the common schools; and the payments and deductions do not affect the eligibility of any school system to participate in the foundation program as established in KRS chapter 157.

SB 242, AN ACT relating to financial documents.
